

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Pegeen Hanrahan

--Draft--

#041271

05/09/05

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, since 1979, the Annual Fifth Avenue Arts Festival has provided an occasion for all people of the City of Gainesville and Alachua County to come together in celebration of the diversity of our cultural community; and

WHEREAS, the Annual Fifth Avenue Arts Festival showcases the work of visual and performing artists and helps to stimulate the local economy; and

WHEREAS, the Annual Fifth Avenue Arts Festival instills pride in the African-American community of Gainesville through its presentation of these unique arts; and

WHEREAS, the Annual Fifth Avenue Arts Festival encourages unity in our City through the participation of community organizations, local businesses, and diverse co-sponsoring organizations; and

WHEREAS, the Fifth Avenue Arts Festival's participating artists enhance the education of students in the festival's "Artists in the Public Schools" Program; and

WHEREAS, we celebrate the 26th consecutive Fifth Avenue Arts Festival, we introduce our unique art and culture to yet another generation.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pegeen Hanrahan, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim May 20-22, 2005 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to visit, enjoy and support this very special program.

The 26th Annual Fifth Avenue Arts Festival Days

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this third day of May, A.D., 2005.

Pegeen Hanrahan
Mayor