At this time, with my new business and my mother living with me, I believe it will be difficult for me to continue on the board.

I even wrote a member thinking she was the City's contact for the board. Yes, I am a little overwhelmed.

I am deeply sorry I can not fill out my term; however, the care for a parent and a new business is quite a life change and time-consuming. I am scaling back on many of my "outside" involvement for the time being.
