

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Craig Lowe PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, senior recreation centers are a community focal point for senior citizens, providing a place where they can come together for services and activities that support their independence, involvement in the community and respond to their needs and interest; and

WHEREAS, senior recreation centers offer services and information to connect senior citizens and their families to vital resources; and

WHEREAS, senior recreation centers provide health and wellness programs, nutrition services, educational and recreational activities, arts and humanities programs, computer education programs and fitness programs; and

WHEREAS, senior recreation centers enable senior citizens to contribute to their health and wellbeing, and participate in stimulating social opportunities that allow them to remain positive, vibrant members of their communities; and

WHEREAS, Alachua County and the City of Gainesville are pleased to announce that the City of Gainesville/Alachua County Senior Recreation Center has been built and will be opening soon. The ribbon cutting is scheduled for September 22nd at 11:00 am.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Craig Lowe, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim September 2011 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in celebration of this new center that enables seniors to continue their involvement with and contribution to the larger community.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this seventh day of September, A.D., 2011.

Craig Lowe
Mayor
