But may I say this:

Seems to me, Gainesville doesn't need people with alot of education, it needs common sense.

Training/Experience:

Have approx. 25 yrs. in the trade of plumbing, non-licensed though.

Was also voted in as president of a tenant's assoc. while living in Ottawa, Canada, with my wife. If need be, I could faxed papers from the City Councilman, Mr. Richard Cannings, and maybe other politicians. Even had breakfast with the mayor, she was a nice lady, Ms. Jackie Holzman. No, wasn't that kind of breakfast, all of the presidents were invited to City Hall to have breakfast with the mayor.

Convictions: YES

B&E, to wit attempted petty larceny. Back in (I believe) '68 or '69. Served 2 1/2 yrs. and now finally decided to get my voter's registration card.
