Said interest rate shall never exceed the maximum rate allowed by law. Principal and interest shall be paid at 218 Turkey Creek, Alachua, Florida 32615, or at such other place or places as may hereafter be designated by written notice from the holder to the maker, in lawful money of the United States of America in the following manner:

All payments shall be applied first to accrued interest, balance to principal. The Maker reserves the right to prepay the principal in whole or in part at any time without penalty.

Whenever any payment required to be made hereunder is not made within thirty (30) days after the due date of such payment, the entire unpaid principal balance and accrued interest to such date shall both bear interest at the highest rate allowed by law after the end of said thirty (30) day period until such default has been corrected.

If any payment of principal or interest coming due under this note is not paid within fifteen (15) days after its due date, the holder may assess a late charge of five percent (5%) of the late payment or Ten Dollars ($10.00), whichever is greater, which shall be immediately due and payable. Failure to pay the late charge shall constitute a default under this note.

If a default occurs under this note or the mortgage securing this note and such default continues for a period of 30 days, then the entire principal sum, accrued interest and late charges shall at the option of the holder hereof become immediately due and payable without notice, time being of the essence.  JOAN MILLER

It is further covenanted and agreed by the Mortgagor to and with the Mortgagee as follows, to wit:

1. To pay the sums of money evidenced by said note(s) secured hereby according to the legal tenor and effect thereof, together with other notes for such further, other and future advances, or any renewals of the indebtedness as may be made by said Mortgagee to said Mortgagor. If any such sum due under said note or extension or renewal is not paid when due, then said sum shall accrue interest at the rate provided in the note until thirty (30) days after the date when due, at which time said sum shall accrue interest without acceleration or demand at the highest rate allowed by law. Upon payment of all sums Mortgagee shall, upon written demand of Mortgagor, satisfy this mortgage at cost of Mortgagor.
2. To pay all and singular the taxes and assessments, levies, liabilities, obligations and encumbrances of every nature on said described property, and if the same be not promptly paid, the said Mortgagee, or said Mortgagee's heirs, legal representatives or assigns may at any time pay the same, and every payment so made shall bear interest from the date of such payment at the highest interest rate allowed by law, and said payments together with such interest shall be secured by the lien of this mortgage. In the event the lien of this mortgage is junior or inferior to any other encumbrance, a default in such prior encumbrance shall be a default in this Mortgage entitling the Mortgagee to all remedies allowed by law and contained herein, including, without limitation, the right to declare all sums secured hereby immediately due and payable.
3. To continuously keep all buildings now and hereafter placed upon said lands fully insured against direct loss by fire, windstorm, hail, explosion, riot, riot attending a strike, civil commotion, aircraft, vehicles, and smoke by an insurance company or companies authorized to do business within the State of Florida, acceptable to the Mortgagee, in an amount of not less than the full insurable value of same, with a loss payable clause to the Mortgagee as his interests shall appear, and in the event of a breach of this covenant to insure, said Mortgagee shall have the right to place and pay for such insurance and each and every such payment shall bear interest from the date of such payment until paid at the highest interest rate allowed by law, and such payment together with such interest shall be secured by the lien of this mortgage.
4. The Mortgagor shall permit, commit or suffer no waste, impairment or deterioration of said property or any part thereof, and keep said buildings and premises in good repair and condition throughout the life of this mortgage. Mortgagee shall have the right to inspect the property to determine compliance with this covenant which right shall be reasonably exercised.
5. If Mortgagor fails to insure the premises, or to pay and furnish receipts for all taxes and assessments, or to pay debts, claims, or other charges for repairs and improvements, or to keep the premises in good condition, and repair, all as provided herein, Mortgagee may at his option procure such insurance, pay such taxes and assessments, redeem the property from any tax sale, procure such receipts, or enter upon the premises and make such repairs as he may deem necessary; and the Mortgagor shall pay to Mortgagee all sums which he shall have so paid, together with interest thereon at the highest lawful rate per annum from the date the same was paid, and this mortgage shall stand as security for payment thereof in like manner and effect as for the payment of the indebtedness referred to above; but the failure of Mortgagee to procure such insurance, to pay such taxes and assessments, to redeem the property from any tax sale, or to make repairs shall in no way render Mortgagee liable to Mortgagor. If Mortgagee shall elect to advance insurance premiums, taxes, or assessments, or redeem from tax sale, the receipt of the insurance company or of the proper tax official shall be conclusive evidence of the amount, validity, and the fact of payment thereof.

6. If the Mortgagor fails to keep and perform fully any of said covenants or agreements set forth in the mortgage or in said note for a period of thirty (30) days in the event this mortgage is intended to be a first mortgage lien upon delivery, or fifteen (15) days in the case of any other note and mortgage; the Mortgagee shall have the right and option of declaring said note(s) and any other notes for future advances secured immediately due and payable, and all rights of the Mortgagor under the mortgage immediately forfeited, and institute such proceedings as may be advised, whether by foreclosure or otherwise, for the collection of said note(s) and enforcing the lien of said mortgage, and any failure to exercise said option shall not constitute a waiver of the right to exercise the same at any other time.

7. The rents, income, and profits of all and every part of the premises shall be specifically pledged to the payment of the debt and all other obligations secured by the mortgage. If default shall be made in the payment of the said indebtedness or any part thereof or in the performance of any covenant or agreement of the mortgage or of the said indebtedness, Mortgagee shall have the right to enter and collect said rent income and profits with the appointment of a receiver, regardless of the adequacy of the security or the solvency of Mortgagor, Mortgagor hereby covenanting that the appointment of such a receiver by a court of competent jurisdiction, regardless of the adequacy of the security or the solvency of Mortgagor, shall be a matter of right to Mortgagee. All such net income, after payment of any collection, management, and attorney's fees, shall be applied toward the payment of any advances made by Mortgagee or in reduction of any indebtedness, including interest thereof, hereby secured in such manner or proportion as Mortgagee may elect.

8. Mortgagor, without first obtaining the written consent of Mortgagee thereto, shall not (a) assign the rents, or any part thereof, from the mortgaged premises, (b) consent to the modification, cancellation, or surrender of any lease of the mortgaged premises, or any part thereof, now existing, or hereafter to be made, having an unexpired term of one year or more, or (c) collect rents from the mortgaged premises for more than three months in advance.

9. The total amount of indebtedness secured hereby may decrease or increase from time to time, but the total unpaid balance so secured at any one time shall not exceed twice the original principal amount of the indebtedness secured hereby plus interest thereof and any disbursements made for the payment of taxes, levies or insurance on the property covered by the lien of this mortgage, with interest thereon; and this mortgage shall secure any and all additional or further monies which may be advanced by Mortgagee to Mortgagor, or any one of them if there be more than one, after the date hereof, which future advances of money, if made, shall be evidenced by a note or notes executed by Mortgagor, or any one of them if there be more than one, to Mortgagee bearing such rate of interest and with such maturities as shall be determined from time to time. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed an obligation on the part of the Mortgagee to make any future advances.

10. If it should become necessary in the opinion of the holder of said note(s) and the mortgage to place same in the hands of any attorney for collection or if suit is brought on same, the Mortgagor agrees to pay all costs, charges and expenses of the same including all court costs, a reasonable attorney's fee as may be adjudged under applicable Florida law, and abstract charges, and in the event of appeal, all such similar costs, charges and reasonable attorney's fees incidental thereto.

11. The extension of time for payment or modification of amortization of the sums secured hereby shall not operate to release the liability of the mortgagor or his successors in interest. Any forbearance by Mortgagee in exercising any right or remedy shall not be a waiver of or preclude the exercise of any right or remedy. The rights, options, powers, and remedies herein provided shall be cumulative and no one or more of them shall be exclusive of the other or others, or of any right or remedy now or hereafter given or allowed by law.

12. If the note(s) secured hereby or any extension or renewal thereof is payable in installments, and if any installment is made more than fifteen (15) days after its due date, the holder may assess a late charge of five percent (5%) of the late installment payment, or $10.00, whichever is greater, which late payment shall be due with the late installment payment, and in any event, shall be due no later than the due date of the next installment payment. Failure to pay the late charge when due shall constitute a default under this promissory note.

13. Mortgagee is under an affirmative obligation to provide Mortgagor or his agent with an estoppel letter within fifteen (15) days of written request for said estoppel letter. The estoppel letter shall state the date of last payment, date of next payment, principal balance, interest rate and date from which unpaid interest has begun to accrue.

Other Provisions: In the event of a sale or transfer of the property encumbered by the lien of this mortgage, the balance due at such time shall not be assumable by a subsequent owner without the prior written consent of the Mortgagee, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld if the assuming party or assignee shall have credit references sufficient to illustrate the ability to assume the payments set forth in the promissory note secured by this Mortgage.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, the Mortgagor has hereunto set her hand and seal the 3rd day of July, A.D., 1997.

3. Defendant resides at 920 S. E. 13TH AVENUE, GAINESVILLE, FL 32601
4. Defendant is hereby advised that, within 30 days of this Order, (s)he may request a hearing to contest the amount of the attorney's fee awarded herein.
