

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Edward B. Braddy
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in honor of Albert "Ray" Massey's distinguished and dedicated service to this community and his tireless effort to promote the benefits of parks and recreation services to the citizens of Gainesville, the City of Gainesville Public Recreation and Parks Board officially established the Albert "Ray" Massey Citizen Volunteer Award in the year 2000 and recognizes the 2013 recipient today; and

WHEREAS, Leroy St. Onge has been a volunteer at Ironwood Golf Course since the early 1990's and has volunteered over 800 hours in the past year alone. Mr. St. Onge is in charge of the "Clubs for Kids" program, is present for every junior golf event held at Ironwood, helps the high school students that use Ironwood as their home course and feeds the deer and turkeys that live at Ironwood three days per week. Mr. St. Onge is an active role model for the children and for the community; and

WHEREAS, the 2013 Albert "Ray" Massey Volunteer Award recipient truly epitomizes the spirit of Mr. Massey by giving back to the community, by being an active leader, role model and mentor to promote recreation in Gainesville.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Edward B. Braddy, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim March 6, 2014 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in recognizing Leroy St. Onge, expressing our appreciation for his many hours of service and dedication to recreation in Gainesville.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 16th day of January, A.D., 2014.
