Land Description for City of Gainesville Proposed Enterprise Zone limits as of June 29th, 2017

Land Surveyors' Report

- This sketch is not a boundary survey.
- The intended purpose of this sketch is to represent a depiction of the Proposed City of Gainesville Economic Zone relative to the Jurisdictional limits as of June 29, 2017.
- This sketch was prepared, compiled and derived from the following sources:
 - Alachua County Property Appraiser: tax maps, deed and other official records, record plats.
 - Municode and Legistar websites: legal description of the Municipal Corporate Limits as they existed in 1991.
 - City Clerk's Office: city ordinances confirming annexation descriptions through June 26th, 2017 and Ord. No. 4069, Gainesville Code Sec. 2-305, Gainesville enterprise zone area.
 - City Public Works Department: GIS map, documents pertaining to existing and pending annexation descriptions, various survey and descriptions data on file at the City Surveyors office.
 - Drawing and sketch prepared by Terrance Brannan Land Surveyor Inc. titled "Land description for City of Gainesville Jurisdictional Limits as of December 10, 2007".
- The sketch of this land description contains key boundary references and is not intended to provide comprehensive description language.
- There exists in the City of Gainesville Surveyor's office the above described files that depict the individual line detail of the City of Gainesville Jurisdictional limits line and are too numerous to be shown on this "sketch of description" and are to be considered a part of the sketch.
