

AMENDMENT TO SETTLEMENT AGREEMENT

WHEREAS, on September 28, 1998 the City Commission of the City of Gainesville ("the City") approved a Settlement Agreement ("the Agreement") with Trader Tom's Florida Fried Chicken, Inc., ("Trader Tom's") which Agreement was entered into on October 20, 1998; and

WHEREAS, as part of the Agreement, Trader Tom's agreed to employ retired policemen to police its business during certain days and hours to ensure adherence with the Agreement and compliance with other ordinances and state statutes; and

WHEREAS, Trader Tom's has been unable to recruit retired policemen to perform these duties, and has requested the City allow employment of certified security officers or police academy graduates to perform these duties; and

WHEREAS, the City Commission finds this is an acceptable alternative;

THEREFORE, the City and Trader Tom's amend the Agreement as follows:

13. Policing of Trader Tom's. Trader Tom's agrees to employ retired policemen, certified security officers or police academy graduates to police its business establishment to ensure adherence to this Agreement as well a to ensure compliance with the other ordinances and state statutes. Trader Tom's agrees to employ the retired policemen, certified security officers or police academy graduates on the weekends from the hours of 7 pm to 2 am.

All other clauses of the Agreement remain in full force and effect with no amendment. This amendment shall not be deemed to be a waiver of any provision of the Agreement or a waiver of the right to enforce any provision of the Agreement by either party.
