Shaneka Young:

As of Friday, April 27, 2018, I received no notification from BPAB member Jennifer Meiselman-Titus regarding confirmation of her status with the Bicycle/Pedestrian Advisory Board (BPAB) as a City of Gainesville Commission appointee. Aside from unreturned emails and voice messages, I ultimately received back the materials mailed to the P.O. Box, due to closure and no forwarding address. I also received indication that the letter sent to the physical address indicated for Jennifer was accepted by someone at the location, but again, no further notification of Jennifer's status was ever received.

Attached you will find a packet regarding confirming Jennifer's BPAB status; BPAB status confirmation letter; postage for the mailings; the online updates on the attempt to reach Jennifer via physical and P.O. Box address and the returned mailings sent to the P.O. Box due to the box being cancelled with no forwarding address.

BPAB MEMBERSHIP UPDATE: Jennifer Meiselman-Titus removed from BPAB via City Commission appointment on Friday, April 27, 2018.

Here is a May update to the BPAB member roster:

Hi Shaneka Young,

I received confirmation that the P.O. Box mail was received on 4/4/2018, while the physical address mail was returned to sender due to addressee moving with no forwarding address on 4/5/2018. Will wait until Friday, April 27, 2018 before pursuing removal from BPAB due to no response to emails, voice messages and written correspondence.

Thanks,

Dekova Batey
