CONSERVATION EASEMENT

THIS CONSERVATION EASEMENT made this ____ day of _____, 2008 by CITY OF GAINESVILLE, Florida, a municipal corporation, whose box address is Post Office Box 490, Gainesville, Florida 32602-0490 ("Grantor"), in favor of the ST. JOHNS RIVER WATER MANAGEMENT DISTRICT, a public body existing under Chapter 373, Florida Statutes, having a mailing address at Post Office Box 1429, Palatka, Florida 32178-1429 ("Grantee").

WITNESSETH:

WHEREAS, Grantor solely owns in fee simple certain real property in Alachua County, Florida, more particularly described in Exhibit "A" attached hereto and incorporated by this reference (the "Property");

WHEREAS, Grantor grants this conservation easement as a condition of Permit # 40-001-23475-3 issued by Grantee, to off-set certain adverse impacts to natural resources, fish and wildlife, and wetland functions; and

WHEREAS, Grantor desires to preserve the Property in its natural condition in perpetuity;

NOW THEREFORE, in consideration of the above and the mutual covenants, terms, conditions and restrictions contained herein, and pursuant to the provisions of Section 704.06, Florida Statutes, Grantor hereby voluntarily grants and conveys to Grantee a conservation easement in perpetuity over the Property of the nature and character and to the extent hereinafter set forth (the "Conservation Easement"). Grantor fully warrants title to said Property, and will warrant and defend the same against the lawful claims of all persons whomsoever.

1. Purpose. The purpose of this Conservation Easement is to assure that the Property will be retained forever in its existing natural condition and to prevent any use of the Property that will impair or interfere with the environmental value of the Property.
2. Prohibited Uses. Any activity on or use of the Property inconsistent with the purpose of this Conservation Easement is prohibited. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the following activities and uses are expressly prohibited:
 - (a) Construction or placing buildings, roads, signs, billboards or other advertising, utilities or other structures on or above the ground.
 - (b) Dumping or placing soil or other substance or material as landfill or dumping or placing of trash, waste or unsightly or offensive materials.
 - (c) Removing, destroying, or trimming trees, shrubs, or other vegetation except as authorized in a wildfire mitigation plan that has been approved in writing by the Grantee. No later than ten (10) days before commencing any activities to implement the approved wildfire mitigation plan, Grantor shall notify the Grantee in writing of its intent to commence such activities. All such activities may only be completed during the time period for which the Grantee approved the plan.

(d) Excavating, dredging or removing loam, peat, gravel, soil, rock or other material substances in such a manner as to affect the surface.

(e) Surface use, except for purposes that permit the land or water area to remain predominantly in its natural condition.

(f) Activities detrimental to drainage, flood control, water conservation, erosion control, soil conservation, or fish and wildlife habitat preservation.

(g) Acts or uses detrimental to such retention of land or water areas.

(h) Acts or uses detrimental to the preservation of the structural integrity or physical appearance of sites or properties of historical, architectural, archaeological, or cultural significance.

3. Reserved Rights. Grantor reserves unto itself, its personal representative, and its successors and assigns, all rights accruing from its ownership of the Property, including the right to engage in or permit or invite others to engage in all uses of the Property that are not expressly prohibited herein and are not inconsistent with the purpose of this Conservation Easement

4. Rights of Grantee. To accomplish the purposes stated herein, Grantor conveys the following rights to Grantee:

(a) To enter upon and inspect the Property in a reasonable manner and at reasonable times to determine if Grantor or its successors and assigns are complying with the covenants and prohibitions contained in this Conservation Easement.

(b) To proceed at law or in equity to enforce the provisions of this Conservation Easement and the covenants set forth herein, to prevent the occurrence of any of the prohibited activities set forth herein, and require the restoration of areas or features of the Property that may be damaged by any activity inconsistent with this Conservation Easement.

5. Grantee's Discretion Grantee may enforce the terms of this Conservation Easement at its discretion, but if Grantor breaches any term of this Conservation Easement and Grantee does not exercise its rights under this Conservation Easement, Grantee's forbearance shall not be construed to be a waiver by Grantee of such term, or of any subsequent breach of the same, or any other term of this Conservation Easement, or of any of the Grantee's rights under this Conservation Easement. No delay or omission by Grantee in the exercise of any right or remedy upon any breach by Grantor shall impair such right or remedy or be construed as a waiver. Grantee shall not be obligated to Grantor, or to any other person or entity, to enforce the provisions of this Conservation Easement.

6. Acts Beyond Grantor's Control. Nothing contained in this Conservation Easement shall be construed to entitle Grantee to bring any action against Grantor for any injury to or change in the Property resulting from natural causes beyond Grantor's control, including, without limitation, fire, flood, storm and earth movement, or from any necessary action taken by Grantor under emergency conditions to prevent, abate or mitigate significant injury to the Property or to persons resulting from such causes.

7. Recordation. Grantor shall record this Conservation Easement in timely fashion in the Official Records of Alachua County, Florida, and shall rerecord it at any time Grantee may require to preserve its rights. Grantor shall pay all recording costs and taxes necessary to record this Conservation Easement in the public records. Grantor will hold Grantee harmless from any recording costs or taxes necessary to record this Conservation Easement in the public records.

8. Successors. The covenants, terms, conditions and restrictions of this Conservation Easement shall be binding upon, and inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective personal representatives, heirs, successors and assigns and shall continue as a servitude running in perpetuity with the Property.

To the extent and subject to limits, procedures, and requirements in Section 768.28, Florida Statutes, (2007) or any successor statute, GRANTEE shall be responsible for claims involving damage to persons or property within the above-described easement area allegedly caused by the negligent or intentional acts of GRANTEE's agents and employees.

Nothing contained in this access easement shall be construed to entitle GRANTEE to bring any action against GRANTOR for any injury to or change in the land described in Exhibit "A" resulting from natural causes beyond GRANTOR'S control, including , without limitation, fire, flood, storm and earth movement, or from any necessary action taken by GRANTOR under emergency conditions to prevent, abate or mitigate significant injury to the land described in Exhibit "A" or to persons resulting from such cases. Similarly, nothing contained in this access easement shall be construed to entitle GRANTOR to bring any action against GRANTEE for any injury to or change in the land described in Exhibit "A" resulting from natural causes beyond GRANTEE'S control, including , without limitation, fire, flood, storm and earth movement, or from any necessary action taken by GRANTEE under emergency conditions to prevent, abate or mitigate significant injury to the land described in Exhibit "A" or to persons resulting from such cases.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, Grantor has executed this Conservation Easement on the day and year first above written.
