Box No. 46

TO: Mayor and City Commission
FROM: Marion J. Radson, City Attorney

DATE: March 8, 1999
FIRST READING

SUBJECT: Ordinance No. 0-99-29; Petition 216TCH-98PB
An ordinance of the City of Gainesville, Florida, amending section 30-41 of the Land Development Code, lowering the minimum number of units per acre for certain residential districts; amending section 30-53 of the Land Development Code pertaining to multiple-family medium density residential districts, providing an exemption from minimum densities for small parcels; amending section 30-55 of the Land Development Code pertaining to residential high density districts, providing an exemption from minimum densities for small parcels, allowing single-family dwellings as a use by right and providing dimensional requirements for single-family and accessory structures in those districts; providing directions to the codifier; providing a severability clause; providing a repealing clause; and providing an effective date.

Recommendation: The City Commission (1) approve the petition, and (2) adopt the proposed ordinance.

STAFF REPORT

These proposed revisions to the Land Development Code are required to implement the amendments to the Future Land Use Element that are currently proposed in Petition 215CPA-98PB. These code revisions, if approved, will establish a minimum density of eight units per acre in the RMF-6, RMF-7 and RMF-8 multiple-family density residential districts, which currently allow density ranges of 10-15, 14-21 and 20-30 dwelling units per acre, respectively. They will also establish a minimum density of eight units per acre for the RH-1 and RH-2 residential high density districts, which currently allow density ranges of 20-43 and 44-100 dwelling units per acre, respectively. In addition, the amendments will exempt lots of 0.5 acre or smaller from minimum density requirements, add single-family dwelling as a use by right in the RH-1 and RH-2 districts, and establish dimensional requirements for single-family principal and accessory structures in the RH-1 and RH-2 districts.

Staff recommended that the Plan Board approve the Petition. By a vote of 3-1, the Plan Board approved the petition. Public notice was published in the Gainesville Sun on December 1, 1998. The Plan Board held a public hearing December 17, 1998.

CITY ATTORNEY'S MEMORANDUM

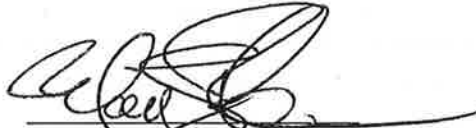

The proposed amendment to the Comprehensive Plan in 215CPA-98PB will be transmitted to the State Department of Community Affairs for written comment. Any comments, recommendations or objections of the State Department of Community Affairs must be considered at the second public hearing. The City Commission may then adopt or adopt with changes the proposed amendment to the Comprehensive Plan, or determine not to adopt a plan amendment. Second reading for this ordinance will occur after the comprehensive plan amendment proposed in 215CPA-98PB is adopted.

4           NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE
5 CITY OF GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA:

6   Section 1. Subsection 30-41(a)(1) of the Land Development Code is amended to read
7 as follows:

8   Sec. 30-41. Establishment of zoning districts and categories.

9   (a)   In order to classify, regulate and restrict the use of land, water, buildings and
10 structures; regulate the height and bulk of buildings; regulate the intensity of land
11 use; implement the comprehensive plan; and promote orderly urban growth
12 within the corporate area of the city, the following zoning districts/categories are 13 established:

14       (1)       Residential districts. (See section 30-41(b))

15       RSF-1: 3.5 units/acre single-family residential district.

16       RSF-2: 4.6 units/acre single-family residential district.

17       RSF-3: 5.8 units/acre single-family residential district.

18       RSF-4: 8 units/acre single-family residential district.

19       RMF-5: 12 units/acre single-family/multiple-family residential district.

20       RMF-6: 8 ~~10~~--15 units/acre multiple-family residential district.

21       RMF-7: 8 ~~14~~--21 units/acre multiple-family residential district.

22       RMF-8: 8 ~~20~~--30 units/acre multiple-family residential district.

23       RC: 12 units/acre residential conservation district.

1 MH: 12 units/acre mobile home residential district.

2 RMU: Up to 75 units/acre residential mixed use district.

3 RH-1: 8 ~~20~~-43 units/acre residential high density district.

4 RH-2: 8 ~~43~~-100 units/acre residential high density district.

5 Section 2. Subsection 30-53(d)(3) is created and added to the Land Development
6 Code to read as follows:

7 Sec. 30-53. Multiple-family medium density residential districts (RMF-6, RMF-7
8 and RMF-8).

9 (d) Intensity of development.

10 (3) Minimum density exemption. Parcels 0.5 acres or smaller are exempt
11 from minimum density requirements.

12 Section 3. The allowable density listed in Table 3 of 30-53(e) of the Land Development
13 Code is amended to read as shown below, and a footnote is created and added to 14 Table 3. All other entries in the table remain unchanged.

15 Sec. 30-53. Multiple-family medium density residential districts (RMF-6, RMF-7
16 and RMF-8).

17 (e) Dimensional requirements. All principal and accessory structures shall be 18 located and constructed in accordance with the requirements in Table 3.

1 Section 4. Section 30-55 of the Land Development Code is amended to read as
2 follows:

3 Sec. 30-55. Residential high density districts (RH-1 and RH-2)

4 (a) Purpose. The residential high density districts are created to promote and
5 encourage the establishment and maintenance of a suitable residential environment for 6 housing located in very close proximity to high intensity activity centers or major traffic
7 generators. Due to the existing residential environment, particular development criteria
8 must be instituted in order to harmonize the existing patterns of growth with the needs
9 of the activity centers and the community at large. The principal use in the RH-2 district
10 shall be residential.

11 (b) Objectives. The provisions of these districts are intended to:

12 (1) Encourage the establishment of an intensely developed residential
13 environment in areas of close proximity to the University of Florida and 14 surrounding commercial and other institutional activities;

15 (2) Provide for necessary environmental safeguards to ensure development
16 is compatible with the existing environmental and community goals; and

17 (3) Encourage privacy, internal stability, attractiveness, order and efficiency in 18 these areas by providing for adequate light, air and usable open space for 19 dwellings and related facilities through careful design and consideration of the 20 proper functional relationships among uses permitted.

21 (c) Permitted uses.

23 a. Single-family dwellings.

- 1            b a. Multiple-family dwellings.
- 2            c. ~~b~~. Roominghouses, in accordance with the conditions and
- 3            requirements of Article VI.
- 4            d. ~~e~~. Dormitories, in accordance with the conditions and requirements of
- 5            Article VI.
- 6            e. ~~f~~. Community residential homes, in accordance with the conditions
- 7            and requirements of Article VI.
- 8            f. ~~g~~. Family day care homes, in accordance with the conditions and
- 9            requirements of state law.
- 10           g. ~~h~~. Housing for the elderly, in accordance with the conditions and
- 11           requirements of Article VI.
- 12           h. ~~i~~. Accessory uses incidental to such uses, including storage rooms,
- 13           management offices, club or game rooms, recreational and laundry
- 14           facilities intended for use solely by the residents of the development and
- 15           their guests, and other activities and uses customarily incidental to an
- 16           otherwise permitted use.
- 17           i. ~~j~~. Day care centers.
- 18           j. ~~k~~. Adult day care homes.
- 19           k. ~~l~~. Home occupations in accordance with Article IV, section 30-58.
- 20           l. ~~m~~. Places of religious assembly in accordance with the conditions and
- 21           requirements of Article VI, on unified and contiguous sites of twenty (20)
- 22           acres or more.
- 23           (2) Uses by special use permit. Uses by special use permit, provided the

1 requirements and conditions of Article VI are met:

- 2 a. Places of religious assembly on sites of less than 20 acres.
- 3 b. Bed and breakfast establishments.
- 4 c. Nursing and personal care facilities.
- 5 d. Libraries.
- 6 e. Private schools.
- 7 f. Community residential homes over 14 persons.
- 8 g. Off-site parking facilities for uses permitted by right in MU-1 or
- 9 MU-2 zoning districts.
- 10 h. Additional uses by special use permit in the RH-2 district:
  - 11 1. Offices, including but not limited to real estate sales, travel
  - 12 agency, insurance sales, employment counseling, educational
  - 13 services, advertising, mailing and stenographic services, and
  - 14 studios for dance, art, music, photography, radio or television.
  - 15 2. Secondary retail and office uses; personal service shops
  - 16 including but not limited to beauty shops and barbershops, shoe
  - 17 repair, tailor, dry cleaner or similar service uses; and retail shops
  - 18 including but not limited to the sale of gifts, flowers, books, jewelry,
  - 19 wearing apparel, eating places, food stores excluding gas pumps,
  - 20 copying services and retail computer services.

21 (d) Intensity of development.

22 (1) Maximum intensity by right. See permitted intensity tables, below.

23 (2) Permitted intensity using density bonus points. Development criteria, as

1 described in the density bonus points manual, when met, shall allow increases in
 2 development intensity based upon the limits in this section. These increases in 3 intensity shall be allowed should a developer propose to undertake a project that 4 ~~which will result in a development sensitive to the unique environmental and~~
 5 developmental needs of the area. For each criterion met by the developer,
 6 certain points shall be credited to the project. Those points, calculated in 7 accordance with the density bonus points manual, shall determine the maximum
 8 allowable density.

Item No. 3

To: City Plan Board

Date: December 17, 1998

From: Planning Staff

Subject: Petition 216TCH-98PB, City Plan Board. Amend the City of Gainesville Land Development Code to establish a minimum density of 8 units per acre in the RMF-6 (10-15 du/a), RMF-7 (14-21 du/a), RMF-8 (20-30 du/a), RH-1 (20-43 du/a) and RH-2 (44-100 du/a) residential districts, and add single-family dwelling as a use by right in the RH-1 and RH-2 districts.

Recommendation

Planning Division staff recommends approval of Petition 216TCH-98PB.

Explanation

These proposed revisions to the Land Development Code are required to implement the amendments to the Future Land Use Element that are currently proposed in Petition 215CPA-98PB. These code revisions, if approved, will establish a minimum density of 8 units per acre in the RMF-6 (10-15 du/a), RMF-7 (14-21 du/a), RMF-8 (20-30 du/a) multiple-family medium density residential districts, and in the RH-1 (20-43 du/a) and RH-2 (44-100 du/a) residential high density districts, will exempt lots of 0.5 acres or smaller from minimum density requirements, add single-family dwelling as a use by right in the RH-1 and RH-2 districts, and establish dimensional requirements for single-family principal and accessory structures in the RH-1 and RH-2 districts.

Minimum density requirements are an important component of the City's long-term commitment to increased residential density, promoting infill development, minimizing urban sprawl, and increased viability of mass transit. However, there have been problems associated with the minimum density requirements in the multiple-family medium density residential districts, and in the residential high density districts. Development problems associated with substandard lots and developed sites where demolition is not contemplated have become evident since establishment of the minimum density requirements. The minimum density requirements have been unrealistically high for many individual lots, particularly those smaller than 0.5 acres. The proposed reductions in required minimum density to eight units per acre for both the multiple-family medium density residential districts and residential high density districts address these issues, as does the proposed exemption from minimum density requirements for parcels of 0.5 acres or smaller. Eight units per acre is the density that is widely accepted as the minimum needed to support mass transit as a viable transportation option.

Another problem that has become evident is the exclusion of single-family as an allowable use in the RH-1 and RH-2 high density residential districts. Prior to adoption of the 1991-2001 Comprehensive Plan, single family was a permitted use in the Residential High Density future land use category and in the corresponding high density residential zoning districts. This has resulted in non-conforming status for single family houses in the high density residential districts, and a consequent hardship for their owners, particularly with regards to financial institutions that are reluctant to refinance non-conforming uses.

The proposed code revisions also provide for additional infill opportunities and are supportive of the City's interest in infill development, redevelopment, and curtailment of sprawl.

Amendments to Sections 30-41, 30-53 and 30-55

Sec. 30-41. Establishment of zoning districts and categories.

(a) In order to classify, regulate and restrict the use of land, water, buildings and structures; regulate the height and bulk of buildings; regulate the intensity of land use; implement the comprehensive plan; and promote orderly urban growth within the corporate area of the city, the following zoning districts/categories are established:

(1) Residential districts. (See section 30-41(b)):

- RSF-1: 3.5 units/acre single-family residential district.
- RSF-2: 4.6 units/acre single-family residential district.
- RSF-3: 5.8 units/acre single-family residential district.
- RSF-4: 8 units/acre single-family residential district.
- RMF-5: 12 units/acre single-family/multiple-family residential district.
- RMF-6: ~~8~~ 10--15 units/acre multiple-family residential district.
- RMF-7: ~~8~~ 14--21 units/acre multiple-family residential district.
- RMF-8: ~~8~~ 20--30 units/acre multiple-family residential district.
- RC: 12 units/acre residential conservation district.
- MH: 12 units/acre mobile home residential district.
- RMU: Up to 75 units/acre residential mixed use district.
- RH-1: ~~8~~ 20--43 units/acre residential high density district.
- RH-2: ~~8~~ 43--100 units/acre residential high density district.

Mr. McGill discussed accessory dwelling units and noted that the issue was not before the board. He explained that the issue of accessory dwelling units would be very significant when it came up. He indicated that he believed the petition before the board would solve some of the problems in older neighborhoods.

Dr. Fried made the motion to approve Petition 215CPA-98 PB and 216TCH-98 PB.

Mr. McGill seconded the motion.

Vice-Chair Guy indicated that, while he agreed with the principles and goals of the petitions, it appeared to be a blanket solution. He discussed problems of the lack of density in areas where it was most needed, around the University of Florida. He pointed out that the densities were put in place by a Comprehensive Plan process and the petitions appeared to be taking a step back from some of the goals of that plan. Regarding the problem of single-family in higher density zoning, he suggested that they should be resolved on a case-by-case basis.

3. Petition 216TCH-98 PB City Plan Board. Amend the City of Gainesville Land Development Code to establish a minimum density of 8 units per acre in the RMF-6 (10-15 du/a), RMF-7 (14-21 du/a), RMF-8 (20-30 du/a), RH-1 (20-43 du/a) and RH-2 (44-100 du/a) residential districts, and add single-family dwelling as a use by right in the RH-1 and RH-2 districts .

Petition 216TCH-98 PB was discussed with Petition 215CPA-98 PB.
