

We value creating mutually-rewarding, long-term relationships with our clients. Our goal is to provide high quality, responsive service that yields returns far greater than your investment in our professional fees. Please find below our proposal of fees to provide the requested services for the General Government.

SERVICE	2017
	Fee	Hours
Audit of the City	$82,000*	820
Audit of the General Government's Pension Funds	$8,000*	80
Audit of the General Governments Other Post-Employment Benefits Funds	$6,000*	60
Audit of the Wild Spaces Public Places Capital Projects Funds	$4,000*	40
Audit of the Community Redevelopment Agency Funds	$5,000*	50
Total	$105,000*	1,050

This fee will be adjusted according to the previous year's Consumer Price Index for the Southern region all urban consumers, with a 5% limit, to determine the fees for future years. Out of pocket expenses will be billed separately.*

UNIQUE SAVINGS OPPORTUNITY WITH CRI

CRI offers the unique opportunity to utilize the CRI vSTAR™ process, our virtual audit process that combines minimal hardware, collaborative software, and cameras to allow us to perform all or part of our audit engagement virtually and in real time. CRI vSTAR™ clients will enjoy reduced or eliminated travel costs – which translates into savings.

If the City requests additional services outside of this proposal, professional fee hourly rates are as follows, but may be negotiated depending on the project request:

CLASSIFICATION	HOURLY RATE
Partner	$240
Manager	$140
Senior	$100
Staff	$80
IT Specialist	$200
Fraud Specialist	$200

Our professional fees are based on the key assumptions that the City will:

- Ensure that the predecessor's work papers will be made available for timely review.
- Make available documents and work papers for review at the City's headquarters location, although we may choose to review at alternate locations.
- Prepare certain schedules and analyses and provide supporting documents as requested.
- Assist us in obtaining an understanding of the accounting systems of the City.
- Not experience a significant change in business operations or financial reporting standards.
