I understand I received the student-adjunct board member seat. Unfortunately I was told that because I work for the city this was a conflict of interest and I cannot sit on the board. I also realized that starting in January I will have a conflict with the meeting times. Therefore I have decided to withdraw my application as a student-adjunct board member, but I am not sure who I need to speak to in order to do so. I was wondering if you had any suggestions.

Thank you,
