City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Pegeen Hanrahan

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the availability of food and fiber at affordable prices is essential to the health and comfort of all of our citizens; and

WHEREAS, production of that food and fiber is being carried out by a farm population which is small and decreasing in number, an actuality which has reduced opportunities for interaction between farmer and consumer; and

WHEREAS, understanding and cooperation between those two groups are essential to the prosperity and well being of our community; and

WHEREAS, the week ending with Thanksgiving Day is designated as Farm-City Week as a reminder to both farmer and consumer of the shared need for good relations with each other and to cause all citizens to examine and reflect on that mutual need.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pegeen Hanrahan, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim November 18-25, 2005 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me to seek out and participate in associations and activities which might add to their personal understanding and appreciation for the farm-city relationship.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 7th day of November, A.D., 2005.

Pegeen Hanrahan
Mayor
