CHILDREN OF ABRAHAM MAKING PEACE

Panel and Community Discussion

Panelists

Hazem Bata – former Executive Director, Council on American-Islamic Relations, Orlando

Reverend Jeremy G. Hole - Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

Rabbi David Kaiman - Congregation B'nai Israel

Moderator:

Rabbi Shaya Isenberg

United Voices for Peace

Panelists and community members will have an opportunity to explore how we can promote peace and understanding among our peoples here in Gainesville and around the world.

“When we who live outside the immediate theaters of hostilities carry on fighting with words, we are participating in the war-making. When we find ways to make peace within ourselves, within our communities and between our communities, we are contributing to peaceful possibility for the conflict as a whole.” Rabbi Isenberg

Tuesday, October 27, 7 p.m.

Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Gainesville, 4225 N.W. 34th St

Free and Open to the Public

Presented by United Voices for Peace

Co-sponsors: Congregation B'nai Israel, Emmanuel Mennonite Church, Gainesville Interfaith Peace Center, Humanist Society of Gainesville, Muslim Association of North Central Florida, P'nai Or Gainesville, Unitarian Universalist Fellowship, Veterans for Peace
