Sec. 30-353. - City plan board.(a) Membership(5) Probationary period for regular members.

- a. New appointees to the city plan board shall complete a 60-day probationary period prior to commencement of the term of office. During this period appointees meet the same attendance requirements as other board members, but shall not have the power to vote or be counted for the purpose of constituting a quorum.
- b. Any appointee who fails to successfully complete the probationary period, except as provided in subsection (a)(5)c. of this section, shall be automatically disqualified for membership on the city plan board, upon the filing with the clerk of the commission of appropriate proof that the appointee has failed to successfully complete the probationary period.
- c. Exception. The city commission may waive the required probationary period for any appointee to the city plan board upon good cause shown and entered in the record of the minutes of the city commission.
