

NE Park Stormwater Task Force

Chronology

Joint Use Stormwater Facility Proposal between City of Gainesville and Renaissance or Capstone Development by Mr. Kim Popejoy

Date	Explanation
April 18, 2001	First meeting of Task Force
March 19, 2001	City Commission appoints members to the Task Force during a special meeting
March 12, 2001	City Commission adopts operating procedures and goals for the Task Force
February 12, 2001	City Commission establishes Task Force and deliberates on membership City Commission selects members for the Task Force
January 30, 2001	Field Meeting with Popejoy, Planning, Public Works, & City Arborist at site to view proposed development in relationship to existing trees.
January 11, 2001	The Public Works Committee discusses the joint use proposal.
January 10, 2001	The Gainesville Sun publishes an article on the joint use proposal for the park.
November 6, 2000	The Public Works Department sends Mr. Popejoy a letter expressing interest in establishing a joint use facility.
October 20, 2000	Final draft of core agreement between City and Popejoy prepared. Agreement not processed through Risk Management or Legal Department
August 22, 2000	Public Works requests soil borings for proposed basin site
April 18, 2000	Model agreement sent to Popejoy by Public Works
March 23, 2000	Meeting w/ Recreation, Popejoy and Public Works on possibility of joint use facility for skateboard facility, neighborhood flooding and development proposal..
February 1, 2000	Meeting with Popejoy on project
January, 2000	Meeting with Popejoy on development project
November 16, 2000 (1999)	Project meeting

Jan
→ ne
not