

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Lauren Poe
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, our community is one that celebrates nature with a rich wealth of beautiful natural resources; and

WHEREAS, filmmakers around the world work tirelessly to help educate us about protecting these resources with the stories they bring to us in film; and

WHEREAS, the City of Gainesville and Alachua County demonstrate a strong commitment to protecting these natural resources, not just for ourselves or for economic gain, but to create a sustainable future for our children - a world where we want to live and we want to leave for future generations; and

WHEREAS, interesting local events are happening throughout our community during the month of February: the UF Environmental Law Conference, The Florida Water Institute, the Frank Conference, Changeville, an EcoArt exhibit at Thornebrook Gallery, EarthSkills, Local Food Week, PURC, Veg Fest and more; and

WHEREAS, please join Cinema Verde to celebrate Environmental Education the month of February 2018 in the warm, Emerald City of Gainesville, Florida!

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lauren Poe, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim February, 2018 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in celebration.

Cinema Verde Environmental Education Month

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 17th day of January, A.D., 2018.

Lauren Poe
Mayor
