Shaneka,

Dakota Woll has resigned his position on the Gainesville Energy Advisory Board. Please read his resignation email below.

Dakota was a nonvoting member holding the student seat on GEAC. GEAC now has three seats open.

Dear GEAC members,

Unfortunately, I fear that my schedule, through the next few months up through my term end this coming September, will no longer allow me to properly contribute as a member of GEAC. On top of heightened leadership positions I have recently taken on at the University of Florida campus, this month I will be starting my LSAT preparation classes that will be from 6:00-10:00PM every Tuesday and Thursday through the end of September. Without the ability to make the meeting regularly and properly contribute, I would be doing a disservice to not allow others the opportunity to sit on the board. As the student seat on the board, I have truly appreciated the opportunity to meet you all and become more ingrained into the issues that face the residents, students or not, in the city of Gainesville. Thank you for all of your time over the past year and a half that I have been on the board, giving me a voice on local issues, and for your continued service to the residents of the Gainesville.

If there is anything I need to do in order to make my resignation official, please let me know and I'll be sure to complete those actions in a timely fashion.

Your friend,

Dakota Woll

On Debra,

I am so sorry to hear that. I will tell Jackie and Sheera.

Don't worry about the Board, I will move forward in submitting your resignation, effective immediately, due to family emergency and care. Would that be OK to go ahead with the resignation?

We will pray for you, for strength for you and your mom. Debra we wish you the best. Please let us know if there is anything you need assistance with.

Hi Connie!

Thank you for the email reminder. It is with a sad and heavy heart that I must resign my seat on the Student Community Relations Advisory Board. I have moved to Haile Plantation, and now live in the county and not in the city.

I wish you, and everyone on the board the best of luck. I will miss you all.

Hello Student Community Relations Advisory Board Members –

This is another reminder that the Student Community Relations Advisory Board will be meeting tomorrow, Thursday, May 7, 2015, at 8 AM in Thomas Center A, Room 105, 302 NE 6th Ave.

Also – attached is a .pdf containing feedback from the engageGNV webpage. The question was: What are the primary concerns between the students and the community? You may want to review the info for tomorrow's discussion.

As always, if you are unable to attend, please let me know as soon as possible. A quorum of three is required.

Thanks & see you in the morning -

Russ,

Unfortunately, I just got back from a business trip in Kansas City last night and trying to play a lot of catch-up with work. With my new job and schedule, it doesn't appear that I will be able to be part of the Cultural Affairs Board this year, so I will need to vacate my seat to someone else who can attend.

Maybe we can do lunch sometime next week or the week after. Let me know. All the best.

Take care,

Jarrod Cruz
