Dear Coni and John,

As you know, my career path has been in flux recently. The good news is, just last week I started a job as an afterschool activity leader at Terwilliger Elementary School. The not so good news is that the hours are until 5:30 p.m. each weekday. That means that there is no way I can attend a 5:30 meeting. Sadly, I can come to no other conclusion but to offer my resignation from the board.

Do I need to write an official letter to the city, or is this official enough?

I have enjoyed being on the board, and I hope that if my circumstances change, that I might be allowed to rejoin again sometime. I will miss you guys, and I also hope that you might still invite me to the parties! Thanks for everything.

Yours Truly,

Rachel Gibas
