SUMMARY

This is managerial and administrative work providing leadership and policy guidance to the City Commission in areas relating to Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) program, Affirmative Action (AA), Small Business Enterprise (SBE), Disability programs and Diversity initiatives.

The single position allocated to this classification serves at the will of the City Commission, reports to the City Commission, and works under general direction. Work in this class is distinguished from other classifications by its citywide responsibility for policy recommendations and reviewing and monitoring compliance in the areas of AA, EEO, MBE programs, SBE, and Diversity programs.

EXAMPLES OF WORK*

This section of the job description is not intended to be a comprehensive list of duties and responsibilities of the position. The omission of a specific job function does not absolve an employee from being required to perform additional tasks incidental to or inherent in the job. Performance of lower level duties may be required.*

ESSENTIAL JOB FUNCTIONS

(NOTE: Following Section is Reprinted Verbatim from § 3.08 of the City Charter)

Shall investigate complaints of discrimination, harassment, retaliation, and other related matters, and propose remedial action, as prescribed by the city's human relations and equal opportunity ordinances.

Shall ensure diversity in contracting, addressing any artificial, perceived or actual barriers that may prevent vendors and firms from engaging in business opportunities with the City, which may include providing preferences and incentives in the contractor and vendor selection process to extent allowed by law and City policies.

Shall monitor all diversity expenditures by the City including a focus on small, veteran, women and minority firms; shall propose policies and procedures to assist in this effort.

Shall make reports, including an annual report, to the charter officers and the commission, as appropriate, as to the activities of the year and the need, if any, to revise the city's human relations and equal opportunity ordinances, policies, and programs pertaining to, but not limited to, equal opportunity, affirmative action, local minority business and local small business enterprise procurement program, fair housing, unlawful harassment, and accessibility to the city's programs, services, and activities.

Shall propose policies for the implementation of comprehensive equal opportunity and diversity programs and adherence to equal opportunity laws, policies, procedures, and related matters.

Shall develop, prepare, and monitor the city's affirmative action plan.

Shall develop training, conduct workshops, and propose strategies and initiatives related to diversity and equal opportunity and related matters in employment, purchasing, services, programs, and activities.

Shall review all proposed changes to current or proposed new city employment policies, procedures, and guidelines, job descriptions, and purchasing policies, procedures, and guidelines for compliance with equal opportunity laws, policies, procedures, and guidelines, and related matters.

Shall monitor all hires, transfers, demotions, promotions, and terminations for compliance with equal opportunity laws, policies, procedures, guidelines, and related matters.

Shall develop instruments to monitor adherence to diversity and equal opportunity laws, policies, procedures, guidelines, and related matters for city services, programs, activities, employment, and purchasing.

Shall participate in the assessment and review of the city's employment practices, including recruitment, appointment, and promotion, as they pertain to all employees and applicants at all levels of city employment.

Shall compile various equal opportunity reports and related reports required of the city by state and federal agencies or that are necessary for compliance purposes.

Shall supervise and coordinate the activities of assigned staff. This includes determining work procedures and schedules; issuing instructions and assigning duties; reviewing work; taking personnel actions; conducting performance reviews; conducting departmental training and orientation; and recommending a budget to the City Commission.

Additional Information:

Shall hold final authority on selection, promotion, discharge, and other appropriate personnel actions for assigned areas.

Shall perform all other functions as prescribed by ordinances or as otherwise directed by the commission.
