SUBJECT: Petition PB-16-181 SVA, Gmuier Engineering, LLC, agent for Reid and Stacey Fogler. Request to vacate public right-of-way for a strip of SW 5th Avenue located between the alleys of SW 11th Drive and SW 10th Drive.

Recommendation

Approve Petition PB-16-181 SVA, subject to the conditions provided in Exhibit B of this staff report.

Description

This is a request to vacate a 10 foot wide by 150 foot long section of the SW 5th Avenue right-of-way, located between SW 11th Drive and SW 10th Drive, south side. According to the applicant, the purpose of the request is to allow three relocated historic structures to be closer to the sidewalk; to match a previous vacation of right-of-way located in the vicinity of SW 5th Avenue, south side in the 1100 block; and to allow for a more efficient placement of point of service locations for GRU (Gainesville Regional Utilities) utilities.

In 2016, the applicant received approvals from the City Historic Preservation Board and City Development Review Board (Petition DB-16-127 SPA) to redevelop Woodbury Row – a multi-family residential development located in the University Heights Special Area and University Heights Historic District-South. The three relocated historic structures, which face north on SW 5th Avenue, are each located on a lot of the Woodbury Row development site (i.e., Lot 14, Lot 16 and Lot 18) that abuts the south side of the subject right-of-way (see Exhibit A).

In accordance with Section 30-192 (b) (5) of the City Land Development Code, the City Plan Board and City Commission shall consider the following criteria in determining whether the requested vacation is in the public interest:

a. Whether the public benefits from the use of the subject right-of-way as part of the city street system;

Based on a sketch included in the applicant's submittal packet (see Exhibit A), the subject right-of-way does not contain public sidewalk or other public amenities typically considered to be a part of the city street system, other than utilities. As a result, the applicant will be required to grant a PUE (Public Utility Easement), where existing utilities to be retained are located within the subject right-of-way.

b. Whether the proposed action is consistent with the comprehensive plan;

Vacation of the subject right-of-way is consistent with Policy 1.2.1 of the City's Future Land Use Element of the City of Gainesville, Comprehensive Plan: The City may vacate street right-of-way only if it does not prevent reasonable connection for existing and future public transit, pedestrian, and non-motorized and motorized vehicle trips. Comments from the City Technical Review Committee do not indicate that the subject right-of-way is needed for current or future improvements related to public transit or pedestrian and vehicular circulation. This petition is also consistent with Transportation Mobility Element, Policy 2.1.2: The City shall promote transportation choice, healthy residential and non-residential development, safety, and convenience. As part of the Woodbury Row redevelopment project, the applicant intends to enhance pedestrian access along SW 5th Avenue by removing a curb cut within the subject right-of-way and reconstructing the sidewalk connections between the three relocated historic structures and the public sidewalk to the north.

c. Whether the proposed action would deny access to private property;

Vacation of the subject right-of-way will not deny or impede access to private property, such as the applicant's Lot 14, Lot 16 and Lot 18 that abut on the south.

d. The effect of the proposed action upon public safety;

Vacation of the subject right-of-way will not prevent public safety personnel or vehicles from accessing other properties. Access to other properties will remain available from SW 5th Avenue and other right-of-ways within the City street system.

e. The effect of the proposed action upon the safety of pedestrians and vehicular traffic;

Vacation of the subject right-of-way will enhance pedestrian and vehicular safety. The applicant will be able to move building entrances closer to the existing sidewalk along the south side of SW 5th Avenue, which can deter criminal behavior by allowing natural surveillance of pedestrian and vehicular traffic. The applicant's plan to remove an existing driveway connection on SW 5th Avenue will help lessen the extent to which pedestrians must interact with vehicular traffic.

f. The effect of the proposed action upon the provision of municipal services including, but not limited to, emergency service and waste removal;

Vacation of the subject right-of-way will not prohibit or diminish the provision of municipal services. Municipal services will continue to be provided through remaining portions of the SW 5th Avenue right-of-way and other adjacent right-of-ways, such as SW 10th Drive.

g. The necessity to relocate utilities both public and private;

Comments from the City Technical Review Committee do not indicate that public or private utilities must be relocated from the subject right-of-way. However, according to comments from Gainesville Regional Utilities (GRU), the applicant's design is not yet approvable and subject to further review. (See Exhibit B.)

h. The effect of the proposed action on the design and character of the area;

Vacation of the subject right-of-way will facilitate the redevelopment of the Woodbury Row development site, which is expected to enhance the overall design and character of the University Heights Special Area and University Heights Historic District-South.

wanting to learn about - or somehow control - the college, which is comprised of the 538 party officials who will actually go about the formal business of electing Donald Trump president on Dec. 19, based on the popular votes of each state.

Many people have something to say about that, partly because Hillary Clinton won the most votes nationwide, partly and also pretty unprecedented. Actual elections are being lobbied and harassed, according to the Idaho Statesman, and this frantic energy has also funneled toward the Office of the Federal Register, whose website is the second Google hit when you search "electoral college."

Deaths. Prerequisites of civil war. Inappropriate photographs. Students with homework questions. A daughter of Holocaustdent's executive orders. An email from Troy, Michigan, sent 93 minutes before Trump was declared the winner last week: "OK I little confused..... tell why do we have a general election if our vote does not count for the Presidential election?"

The normal work in this office is the publishing of the daily Federal Register, which includes government agencies' notices and proposed rules,

Among other things or yelling that we need to go back to the popular vote, but there is no "back," Vincent says. "Because this is how it's been since 1789."

For now, then, there are emails to deal with, callers to educate, and a process to follow that helps to formally elect a president. And a couple weeks after the inauguration, Vincent will enjoy her first vacation since August, on the beaches of Miami, far from the paper and the printing.

ELECTION 2016 DISSENTERS REACT

Answering the anger

Electoral college isn't a place, but someone has to get the upset calls

By Dana Zak
The Washington Post

WASHINGTON — The Sunday of last week was Wednesday was quiet, too.

The pitchforks started arriving last Thursday, about 16 hours after the presidential election was called. They were virtual pitchforks, but still. Email after email. Tweets. Phone calls. Facebook posts. Some profane. Some pleading.

One subject line: "electoral votes are wrong!"

Another: "Vote in Hillary Clinton Dec. 19!"

Another: "Letter to America!"

Another: "HELP!"

So it goes at the Office of the Federal Register, which administers the electoral college and now finds itself at the center of a populist brouhaha.

The electoral college is not an actual place — no grassy quad, nor group of people sharing a space. It exists for one day every four years and then vanishes. Like Brigadoon, until the next presidential election. The closest thing to a physical headquarters is this office, one half of the seventh floor of a neoclassical brick building over an Au Bon Pain, six blocks north of the Capitol, in a neighborhood historically referred to as Swampoodle. Over the past week, the Office of the Fed-

Miriam Vincent, staff attorney at the Office of the Federal Register, has been hounded with emails from citizens inquiring about the workings of the electoral college in the wake of Donald Trump's election. EVELYN HOCKSTEIN/THE WASHINGTON POST because Donald Trump is Donald Trump.

"It's just that they keep coming," says Miriam Vincent, starting at her inbox Wednesday morning. "And every time we get close to having a handle on it, we get more. It goes on. And on."

Her email pings.

Vincent has 558 unread emails, a grand total in her hand, and a big bottle of Excedrin Migraine on her cluttered desk. She is a staff attorney in the Legal Affairs and Policy Division in the Office of the Federal Register under the National Archives and Records Administration. What that really means, right now, is that she is dealing with the nation's collective freakout about the electoral college. Millions of Trump haters who can't handle Clinton's loss are signing petitions to persuade electors to vote as the majority of Ameri-

"It's just that they keep coming. And every time we get close to having a handle on it, we get more. It goes on. And on."

—Miriam Vincent, speaking of angry emails sent to the Office of the Federal Register in the wake of Donald Trump's election plus presidential documents such as speeches and proclamations. It's America's paper trail, wide open for anyone to see, textual government transparency in action. They've processed over 28,000 documents so far this year. They publish every business day, even if D.C. is closed for snow, even if the government is shut down.

"And every four years we have this dropped on us," Vincent says. It goes back to a 1950 government reorganization that moved administrative responsibility for the electoral college from the State Department to the National Archives. "And we have it because the architect said, 'You're doing it.' Maybe the (Register) director was standing in the wrong place at the wrong time."

Vincent's division says "try again." Then she and her colleagues compare its 51 certificates to the ones received by Congress, to make sure everything checks out. And then we have a president.

The past three elections were easy for Vincent's office. The election of 2000 was a challenge. Citizens kept showing up to scrutinize the signatures on Florida's certificate, which had been laid out for public inspection.

This year, though, is surreal. A tweet to @ElectoralCollege from a woman named Diane: "Please do not discard my Ohio vote. Trump IS my president."

A tweet from an anonymous 18-year-old: "F--- YOU, Hillary got the most popular votes and then you chose a guy who can't even do his fake tan right."

But Vincent and Bunk are not in charge of choosing the president. Their role here in this moment is simply to respond to these emails with information, excise offensive posts from the Facebook page, and screenshot the threats to send to the inspector general. "We're really sick of the phrase 'We the People,'" Vincent says. "On both sides," Bunk adds. "Someone sent us the text of the Declaration of Independence," says Vincent. "What happened to civics in school?" Bunk says. "I'm serious about that."

Memorandum

To: City of Gainesville Planning Department

From: Christopher Gmuer, Gmuer Engineering

Date: December 5, 2016

Re: Woodbury ROW Vacation – Letter of Satisfaction of Section 30-192.b(5) Criteria for Vacation or Closure

This application proposes to vacate approximately a 10 foot wide by 150 foot long section of the south side of the SW 5th Ave Right-of-Way between the alleys of SW 11th Dr. and SW 10th Dr. The closing is requested for the following purposes:

- To allow historic structure relocations to be located closer to the sidewalk as reviewed and allowed under Petition No. DB-16-127 SPA and preceding Historic Preservation Board petitions
- To match a previous vacation completed in 2003 under Ordinance 030129 / Petition 74SVA-03PB
- Allow for a more efficient placement of point of service locations for GRU Utilities

This document is provided to show how this request for vacation satisfies the following criteria of determining whether the request is in the public interest:

- A. Whether the public benefits from the use of the subject right-of-way as part of the city street system;
The right-of-way width of SW 5th Ave for this block is 70 feet wide, much wider than the typical right-of-way width in this area; normally 50' wide. No future widening would anticipated for this historic residential roadway especially considering that the existing cross section includes 2-way travel lanes, on-street parking on both sides, and sidewalks on both sides all within the existing and proposed right-of-way width.
- B. Whether the proposed action is consistent with the comprehensive plan;
Land Use Element Policy 1.2.1 states that, "The City may vacate street right-of-way only if it does not prevent reasonable connection for existing and future public transit, pedestrian, and non-motorized and motorized vehicle trips." The proposed vacation functions as a front yard and granting this vacation will not change the trip distribution patterns of any mode of transportation.
- C. Whether the proposed action would deny access to private property;
The property owners of the adjacent / affected property are the ones making this application and have stated that this action does not impede access to their property.
- D. The effect of the proposed action upon public safety;

All portions of the existing section of the roadway and sidewalks will remain in the right-of-way without relocations of any of these facilities. No ways of traffic will be obstructed.

- E. The effect of the proposed action upon the safety of pedestrians and vehicular traffic;
All portions of the existing section of the roadway and sidewalks will remain in the right-of-way without relocations of any of these facilities. No ways of traffic will be obstructed. No change to the current circulation patterns are proposed.
- F. The effect of the proposed action upon the provision of municipal services including, but not limited to, emergency service and waste removal;
There is no functional impact since all portions of the existing section of the roadway and sidewalks will remain in the right-of-way without relocations of any of these facilities.
- G. The necessity to relocate utilities both public and private;
Only individual services connections are located within the proposed vacation area. Any adjustments to these utilities will be permitted with GRU. Additionally, the applicant has no issue with a blanket public utility easement remaining over this area.
- H. The effect of the proposed action on the design and character of the area.
We believe that the vacation would continue the intent of the University Heights Special Area Plan to encourage increased street activity through means such as closer building setbacks that allows shorter pedestrian connection from the public sidewalk to the residential entrances. Additionally, this request has been presented to the Historic and Development Review Boards as an potential alternative component to a development plan currently in review by City staff. We would also like to reference a previous vacation completed just to the west in 2003 that proposed a nearly identical 10 foot wide vacation under Ordinance 030129 / Petition 74SVA-03PB.

A METES & BOUNDS Public Utility Easement (PUE) must be retained in perpetuity over the entire area proposed for vacation, whether or not a blanket easement is existing, proposed, or vacated. The language in the proposed ordinance regarding the Public and Private Utility Easement is acceptable.

The previous adjacent street vacation cited as an example in the submittal resulted in substantial violations of utility standards for water and sewer utilities. It is extremely important to ensure that this street vacation does not result in more of the same.
