

Alternative Recommendation

This alternative treats Sexual Offender Treatment as a separate distinct use from other types of treatments and counseling. This alternative goes a step further than the current proposal by creating a definition for Treatment Center that addresses the other types of treatments and counseling and indicated clearly where that use would be allowed. It is staff's opinion that this alternative is better than staff's original proposal.

Delete:

~~Rehabilitation center means a facility providing professional care, nonresident only, for those requiring therapy, counseling or other rehabilitative services related to drug abuse, alcohol abuse, social disorders, physical disabilities, mental retardation or similar problems.~~

Add:

Treatment Facility means an out-patient facility that provides professional therapy, counseling or other rehabilitative services to individuals or groups for addictions (drugs, alcohol, food, sex, or similar disorders) behavioral disorders, intellectual disabilities and physical disabilities.

Sexual offender treatment center means an out-patient facility that provides professional therapy, counseling or other rehabilitative services to individuals or groups that are either registered sexual offenders as defined in Section 943.0435, Florida Statutes, or registered sexual predators as defined in Section 775.21, Florida Statutes. (The intent of this definition is that it applies to both adults and juvenile offenders: See Exhibit 2 for FS 943 and 775)

Modify:

~~Social service home or halfway house means a facility providing professional care, resident or nonresident, for those requiring therapy, counseling or other rehabilitative services related to drug abuse, alcohol abuse, social disorders, physical disabilities, mental retardation or similar problems.~~ that provides professional residential care for individuals or groups needing therapy, counseling or other rehabilitative services related to mental or physical disabilities, addictions, social disorders or similar issues, not including sexual offender treatment centers
