

THE AWARD-WINNING*City ofGAINESVILLE, FLORIDAinvites your interest in the position ofEQUAL OPPORTUNITY DIRECTOR

Being a Charter Officer and reporting directly to the Mayor and City Commissioners, this is truly a unique opportunity to provide leadership and policy guidance to the City Commission in areas relating to Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), Minority Business Enterprise (MBE) program, Affirmative Action (AA), Small Business Enterprise (SBE), Disability programs and Diversity initiatives.

The City Commission is seeking an aggressive, highly responsible and forward thinking Director with a demonstrated record of a pro-active commitment to diversity. An Equal Opportunity Director who is visible and active in the community will be valued, as will one who ensures that citizens' varied opinions and input are heard and respected. The successful candidate will be an individual who is known for being accessible and responsive to the needs of internal and external stakeholders. The ideal candidate will demonstrate the ability to communicate with a broad variety of audiences in an effective and positive manner. Gainesville's next Equal Opportunity Director will be an individual who demonstrates the highest level of integrity, marked by honesty and fairness. The ideal candidate will garner credibility and respect among the Mayor and Commission, City staff and committees, the business community, academic community and the general public. The new Director must also demonstrate an understanding of a diverse community, the value of organizational diversity, and a balanced strategy for minority inclusion.

GAINESVILLE, THE COMMUNITY

Home to over 126,000 residents, Gainesville is approximately 60 miles southwest of Jacksonville and is located less than a 1.5 hour drive from the beaches of the Atlantic Ocean or the Gulf of Mexico. Major attractions such as Disney World, Universal Studios, Sea World, and Busch Gardens are within less than a two-hour drive.

Gainesville is the largest city and county seat of Alachua County serving as the cultural, educational and commercial center for the north central Florida region. Gainesville is home to the University of Florida, Florida's largest and oldest university, and Santa Fe College, a provider of excellent professional and vocational education. Gainesville has one of the largest medical communities in the Southeastern United States. In addition to Florida Gators' athletics, the city offers 13 museums and galleries and a thriving downtown.

The City of Gainesville is not just a great place to work, but also an amazing place to live. From sports to the arts to outdoor recreation, Gainesville has something for everyone. We are also known for our preservation of historic buildings and the beauty of our natural surroundings. Numerous parks, museums and lakes provide entertainment for both residents and visitors. Because of our beautiful landscape and urban "forest," Gainesville is one of the most attractive cities in Florida.

Some of the awards and recognitions Gainesville and its community received in recent years include:

- Gainesville ranks no. 5 on Movoto.com's list of Top 10 Best Places to Live in Florida, May 2014; and 35 on Livability.com's Top 100 Best Places to Live, Jan. 2014.
