SECTION 1. AUTHORITY. This resolution is adopted pursuant to the Ordinance, Resolution No. 130024, Article VIII, Section 2, Florida Constitution, Sections 166.021 and 166.041, Florida Statutes, and other applicable provisions of Law.

SECTION 2. DEFINITIONS AND INTERPRETATION. This resolution constitutes the Annual Rate Resolution as defined in the Ordinance. All capitalized terms in this resolution shall have the meanings defined in the Ordinance and the Preliminary Rate Resolution.

SECTION 3. IMPOSITION OF FIRE SERVICES SPECIAL ASSESSMENTS.

(A) The parcels of Assessed Property described in the Assessment Roll, which is hereby approved, are hereby found to be specially benefited by the provision of the fire services, facilities, and programs described or referenced in the Preliminary Rate Resolution, in the amount of the Fire Services Special Assessment set forth in the Assessment Roll, a copy of which was present or available for inspection at the above referenced public hearing and is incorporated herein by reference. It is hereby ascertained, determined and declared that each parcel of Assessed Property within the City will be specially benefited by the City's provision of fire services, facilities, and programs in an amount not less than the Fire Services Special Assessment for such parcel, computed in the manner set forth in the Preliminary Rate Resolution. Adoption of this Annual Rate Resolution constitutes a legislative determination that all parcels assessed derive a special benefit in a manner consistent with the legislative declarations, determinations and findings as set forth in the Ordinance, the Preliminary Rate Resolution, and this Annual Rate Resolution from the fire services, facilities, or programs to be provided and a legislative determination that the Fire Services Special Assessments are fairly and reasonably apportioned among the properties that receive the special benefit as set forth in the Preliminary Rate Resolution.

(B) The method for computing Fire Services Special Assessments described and referenced in the Preliminary Rate Resolution is hereby approved. The Parcel Apportionment methodology described in Section 6 of the Preliminary Rate Resolution is hereby approved.

(C) For the Fiscal Year beginning October 1, 2013, the estimated Fire Services Assessed Cost to be assessed is $5,280,000.00. The Fire Services Assessment to be

$78.00 per net Factored Fire Protection Unit

(D) The above rate of assessment is hereby approved. Fire Services Assessments for fire services, facilities, and programs in the amounts set forth in the Assessment Roll, as herein approved, are hereby levied and imposed on all parcels of Assessed Property described in such Assessment Roll for the Fiscal Year that begins on October 1, 2013.

(E) No Fire Services Assessment shall be imposed on a parcel of government property whose building use is wholly exempt from ad valorem taxation as provided by Florida law.

(F) Any shortfall in the estimated Fire Services Assessed Cost caused by or attributed to any reduction or exemption from payment of the Fire Services Assessments required by law and this Resolution shall be made whole from any legally available funds, and shall not be paid for by proceeds or funds derived from the Fire Services Assessments. To this extent, the City Commission expects to budget and appropriate during the fiscal year beginning October 1, 2013, from any legally available revenues an amount sufficient to cover the anticipated cost of providing fire services, facilities, and programs to any lawfully exempted properties, and any reduction in the Fire Services Assessed Cost.

(G) As authorized in Section 11-43 of the Ordinance, interim Fire Services Assessments are also levied and imposed against all property for which a Certificate of Occupancy is issued after adoption of this Annual Rate Resolution based upon the rates of assessment approved herein.

(H) Fire Services Assessments shall constitute a lien upon the Assessed Property so assessed equal in rank and dignity with the liens of all state, county, district or municipal taxes and other non-ad valorem assessments. Except as otherwise provided by law, such lien shall be superior in dignity to all other liens, titles and claims, until paid.

(I) On or before September 15 of each fiscal year the Fire Services Special Assessment is imposed, the Mayor or Mayor Pro Tem is authorized to certify the non-ad valorem assessment roll on compatible electronic medium to the tax collector.

Assessments), unless proper steps shall be initiated in a court of competent jurisdiction to secure relief within 20 days from the date of this Annual Rate Resolution.

SECTION 6. SEVERABILITY. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, section or provision of this resolution or the application hereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unconstitutional, such finding shall not affect the other provisions or applications of the resolution which can be given effect without the invalid or unconstitutional provisions or application, and to this end the provisions of this resolution are declared severable.

Levy and Citrus County residents angered over scrapped nuclear plants

Duke Energy will not build its planned Levy County plant and is closing its Crystal River plant.

The Associated Press

OTTER CREEK Money is usually tight in Levy and Citrus counties, which are hours removed from the flashy tourist attractions on Orlando and the vast housing subdivisions in suburban Tampa. The median household income in each ranks near the state's bottom. Still, residents in the two mostly rural counties thought the future was bright: Duke Energy was promising to build a $2.4-billion nuclear plant in Levy while rebuilding a shuttered nuclear plant in neighboring Citrus.

Hundreds of good-paying construction jobs would be created in the short-term, and hundreds of well-paid workers would be employed at the plants long term. That money would flow through the local economy, creating more jobs. If any local had any environmental concerns, most weren't among them out loud.

But the counties' current and future economic prospects dimmed considerably when Duke announced earlier this month that it will not build the Levy plant after saying earlier this year that it would not rebuild the Crystal River plant in Citrus. The country's largest utility cited changes in the energy market — including natural gas prices — and regulatory hurdles at the state and federal levels. For some final kicks, North Carolina-based Duke intends to charge its 1.7 million Florida customers — which includes thousands in Levy and Citrus — a monthly fee to pay for the costs it incurred planning the construction on the plants. Through these fees, Duke customers have paid $1.9 billion for Levy County plant so far. And the company has refused to pay about $16 million of its $36 million property tax bill in Citrus, saying the nuclear plant has lost value. That shortfall represents about 3 percent each of Citrus County's school and county government revenue, causing emergency cuts.

Michelle Larkin, a 45-year-old homemaker in Levy County who lives in Citrus, made a face when asked about Duke's impact on both counties. She didn't mind paying the fees on her utility bill when she thought there was a chance that a new plant was going up, seeing it as a key to reviving the area. Now that the company has put its plans on hold, she's skeptical of the future. The unemployment rate in each county is 7.8 percent, above the state average of 7.2 percent. Citrus has a population of 140,000, Levy 40,000.

"I think it's a just gonna make it worse for the economy," Larkin said with a sigh. She who works at the Hickory Island Lodge in Inglis, a Levy town not far from the Citrus County line. It's near the road to the now-closed Crystal River plant and she remembers how the bar used to be packed when she started as a bartender five years ago. But Crystal River workers craved a concrete containment building during an attempt to upgrade the plant in 2009. An attempt to fix the problems in 2011 resulted in more cracks.

Business has since lagged. "Now we don't have the nuclear workers," she said, looking around at the bar, which contained a handful of people, including a few bikers just passing through.

Duke executives have maintained that the Levy property remains a "good site" for a nuclear power plant and that the company could still wind up building there some day. It is still pursuing a federal license. "I'm hopeful it does come here eventually," Larkin said, shaking her head. "But by the looks of what's happened, I don't think it will."

When the Levy County plant was originally announced in 2009, it was supposed to be open by 2015. Residents thought the area would soon shed its old Florida image and become a little more modern. "The anxiety of it being a possibly money cause because of Duke's promise,"

"I don't think anyone was really against it," said Buddy Sharp, a 51-year-old cabinet maker. "It's a shame."

Man harassed woman for year, deputies say

By Greg Hamilton

STAFF WRITER A Newberry man was arrested Saturday evening after deputies said he harassed a woman for a year by sending her obscene and threatening messages.

Thomas Ridgell, 40, of 303 NW County Road 230, said he was mailing a woman who told deputies she was worried about her safety after receiving numerous unwanted text messages, phone calls and visits from him, according to an Alachua County Sheriff's Office report. In late July, the woman told deputies that Ridgell had hit her in Guthrie County. The woman also said that he had driven his work truck into her apartment complex on several occasions.

A deputy listened to messages that the woman had recorded on her phone in which Ridgell told her and a friend to meet him at the Hitchhug Point in Guthrie County where, well before, he had gone into a fight with them and punched the woman in the head, the report said.

The deputy recognized the woman from a previous report in which Ridgell had gone to her job and gotten into an argument that led the store manager to call deputies because the fight was disturbing customers.

The woman showed the deputy 13 ignored phone messages in one day from Ridgell, and the deputy listened to several obscene and threatening phone and text messages.

While the deputy was speaking to the woman, Ridgell called and threatened her. The deputy answered the phone and identified himself and Ridgell hung up only to continue texting the woman's phone.

Ridgell was arrested on a charge of aggravated stalking and was being held Sunday at the Alachua County jail on $10,000 bond.
