Shaneka,

Jason Gonos has resigned his position on the Gainesville Energy Advisory Board. Please read his resignation email below.

Jason absence brings the voting membership to seven. GEAC now has two seat open.

GEAC,

The last few months have been very busy for my businesses and I have been short on time. I would like to offer my resignation from GEAC since I do not feel that I can adequately devote the time necessary to be a valuable member of the committee any longer. I will still be available to any of you if there is anything that I may be of assistance with, but at the current time I will not be able to dedicate my time to GEAC. Thank you all for everything that you do and I look forward to seeing GEAC continue to benefit Gainesville.

Jim, Please let me know if there is anything that I need to do to make my resignation official with the city.

Best regards,
Jason

I Charles E. Goston resign immediately from the City of Gainesville Human Relations Board, Because I have been elected as the new City Commissioner for district 1 for the City of Gainesville, I hope that the board will continue to stand for those who need help and resolution to serious problems of discrimination that invades the lives of so many every day.

Charles E. Goston, Commissioner District 1
