

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Lauren Poe
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, older Americans have unique and special needs requiring legal attention, knowledge and expertise; and

WHEREAS, the population of the United States continues to age, requiring specialized professionals to meet ever changing needs; and

WHEREAS, the practice of Elder Law attorneys deal holistically with seniors and their families in order to address a wide variety of needs and concerns; and

WHEREAS, Elder Law attorneys have unique training and skills to educate older Americans and their families on these important issues and to draft the necessary documents to protect older Americans; and

WHEREAS, Elder Law is an ever changing and evolving area of law requiring dedicated professionals to monitor these changes.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lauren Poe, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim May, 2018 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in remembering individuals of the importance of this profession in protecting some of our most vulnerable citizens.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 17th day of April, A.D., 2018.

Lauren Poe
Mayor
