

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Pegeen Hanrahan

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Professional Public Safety Telecommunicator in Alachua County plays a crucial role in the protection of life and property and delivery of Public Safety Services; and

WHEREAS, each day hundreds of Gainesville citizens dial 9-1-1 for help in emergencies, and the Telecommunicators who answer these calls for help, gathering essential information and dispatching the appropriate assistance can often make the difference between life and death for persons in need; and

WHEREAS, these well trained, highly dedicated and deeply motivated individuals serve the citizens of Gainesville twenty-four hours a day, seven days a week and during extreme situations, such as hurricanes, are unable to be with their families or protect their own personal homes and property; and

WHEREAS, Telecommunicators often do not receive the recognition due them by the citizens and agencies who depend on them and benefit from their services; and

WHEREAS, the Congress of the United States has proclaimed its' support and recognition to the Telecommunicators and their profession.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pegeen Hanrahan, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim April 10-16th, 2005 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me and the City Commission in publicly recognizing the local Telecommunicators who serve the citizens of Gainesville in such a professional manner.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this fifth day of April, A.D., 2005.
