PRCA Staff Report

Linda Demetropoulos, staff resignation pending: Geoff Parks is going to Florida Natural Areas Inventory, leaving late April after 18 years of service. The job controls over 3,200 acres of park lands, covering animals, plants, fire, restorations and maintenance. The replacement process is to put in a request, advertise the position for 2 weeks minimum and begin interviews. also looking for a full time Park Ranger, 1/2 time nature Assistant, 1/2 time Recreational leader, and a HCHW Nature Assistant. There have been over 200 applicants for the full time park ranger position, the quality of which are very strong. The maintenance personnel have been busy with pressure washing table and deck repairs, etc.

The Zipline breaking down has been a reoccurring problem. Barnyard buddies will resume in April and go through May- 3:00 on Wednesdays. Extra Staff has been brought in for help at Sweetwater on the weekends due to higher than usual volume of visitors. PRCA has been participation with the Forest Service, Kids in Parks and others on "Track trails" for 3 nature Parks which is a Kiosk of information geared for children hiking the trails.
Earth Academy Day camp registration opens April 19th.
