Mother goes missing; Children worry, police are searching

By Jim Silman Staff writer

A Gainesville woman who may want to harm her children goodbye before she disappears, police and family say. Rhonda Stone-Swift, also known as Rhonda Jean Swift, 46, was last seen at 10 a.m. Tuesday, her daughter Courtney Swift said on Wednesday. Gainesville police released a flyer on Wednesday afternoon for officers to be on the lookout for Rhonda Swift and her car, a 2010 Blue Hyundai Elantra with the tag number ADG-L83. Family say she left from her address near State Road 121 and U.S. 441. Rhonda Swift has blue eyes and brown hair. She wore an orange shirt and jeans shorts when she left, family said, and sometimes she wears glasses. She weighs 150 pounds and is 5 foot 8. According to her family, Rhonda Swift suffers from thyroiditis, and had complained of pain from the disease recently. She moved to Gainesville from Iowa, family said. "She doesn't have any friends or family here besides us. Everyone is basically in Iowa," Courtney Swift said. "There's someone she would go to because she works from home." Her daughter said Rhonda Swift was under a lot of pressure from her boss, and that the two recently had an argument. Her disease made her forgetful, her daughter said, which exacerbated the rift between her and the employer. "I think her boss really got to her. She doesn't want to lose her job — we can't afford it," Courtney Swift said. "I think the argument got her over the top. I don't know if the just had enough and took off." Rhonda Swift recently sent a message on Facebook to a family member, her daughter said, expressing that she didn't think anyone would care if she disappeared, and she just wanted to "go away and go to sleep and never wake up." Courtney Swift said the last time she saw her mother, she gave her and Courtney Swift's son a long hug, and kissed them both. She told them she loved them, and she was crying. She said she was really sad and had to go to a doctor's appointment. A few hours later, another daughter was leaving the house, and Rhonda Swift waved her down. She leaned in and said "I love you. Never forget that."

When the daughter returned at 2 p.m., the mother's computer was off and the phone sat in a charge. Both those things were rare, family said, because Rhonda Swift works from home every day. Courtney Swift said family spent the day searching, and has no idea where her mother could be. "I honestly don't know," she said. "I thought she was having one of her days."

variety of arts and skills, including painting, theater, sculpture, chess and step-aerobic animation. "The goal of this event is to build excitement for the new community center and raise funds so we can offer really high-quality programs," Adair said. The nonprofit organization, which derives its name from Dr. Susan's "Horton Hears a Who," was established four years ago by three Gainesville moms who wanted more arts programming for their children.

Yopp currently runs summer camps for children and the Where the Sidewalk Ends: Family Arts Festival in Thornbrook Shopping Village each year. The United Academy/Rosa B. Williams Recreation Center is the organization's first permanent location. Angela Habelck, operations manager for Yopp, said the goal of the organization is to raise awareness about the arts in the Gainesville community, particularly among its junior residents. "We feel that the arts are an important part of a youth's growing experience," she said.

Adair said Yopp practices the "Reggio Emilia" educational approach, which was created by a group of parents in post-World War II Italy. "It's not about teaching a skill to a child. It's about facilitating a child's exploration of a certain material or art," she said. "We treat all the children like cognitive individuals." Yopp's next event is an open house for the Union Academy/Rosa B. Williams Recreation Center on Oct. 6 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. The center is located at 524 NW First St., and the event will feature food, live music and a bounce house.

GOLD CASE: Rowles serving a life sentence

the ... profile from the victim's family. The case has been turned over to the State Attorney's Office for further action on whether Rowles should be charged. The body of Foster, a 21-year-old Santa Fe student, was found badly beaten March 27, 1992, in a shallow grave in woods near the former Brown Dewey restaurant — now an Islamic center — off U.S. 441. Authorities had initially charged a man who was already serving a 60-year sentence for the October 1990 kidnapping, sexual assault and battery of a Wisconsin college student. However, a judge ruled the evidence was not sufficient to move forward with the case. State attorney's spokesman Spencer Mann said a decision on whether to charge Rowles will be made quickly because additional DNA analysis will need to be done. Rowles is a registered sexual predator and serving a life sentence in the Florida Department of Corrections for first-degree murder. He also has sexual battery convictions. Rowles did not admit to the Foster death but did not deny it when he was questioned.

DONATIONS: Some may turn down the raise

mini-grants and Take Stock in Children, a statewide nonprofit run locally by the foundation that focuses on mentoring low-income students from seventh grade through high school graduation. According to the foundation's website, students can earn a two-year college scholarship if they remain crime and drug free through graduation and meet regularly with their mentor. Judy Boley, executive director of the foundation, said donations will be matched by the state.

Board member Barbara Sharpe recommended making the donation at the end of last week's board meeting. "It's a very worthy cause," she later said. Fellow board member Carol Operante also supports the move, calling it a chance to do something good for the district. "I thought it was a brilliant idea," she said. Board member Eileen Roy did not agree. "It's just not a well thought out idea," she said. Roy said she is not accepting the raise for a donation because it would be subject to taxes, saying she will refuse the raise so the money can stay in district's general fund. "Why take more money out of the general fund when the school district needs every dime?" she said. Board member Guiseppe Paulson also has decided to forgo the raise altogether, arguing that leaving the money in district coffers allows it to reach all students. "The reason is that it leaves the money in the school district," he said. "They do with it what they need." Contact Joey Fierbas at 333-3166 or joey.fierbas@gainesville.com.

GROWL: Morgan has agreed to be family-friendly

sen jokes, and he's made controversial comments about gay people and former vice presidential candidate Sarah Palin in the past. Quinn said that Morgan has agreed to be family-friendly as part of the Gator Growl contract, noting that he stores cases of dirty material on "30 Rock." There have been complaints about comedians using risqué material at Gator Growl dating back to Brian Williams in 1982, as comedians face the challenge of entertaining students as well as alumni in the show. Quinn said that Morgan and Turner might generally appeal to different audiences, but there are crossover fans. He used himself as an example, saying that he's a fan of both country music and "Saturday Night Live." "It's really good that we're able to produce such a diverse show for people this year," he said. Neighborhood Workshop Summary For Hidden Lake Comprehensive Plan Amendment and Rezoning

October 11, 2012

The neighborhood workshop for the Hidden Lake Comprehensive Plan Amendment and Rezoning was held Thursday, October 11, 2012 at 6:30 pm at the former Brasington Cadillac Oldsmobile site at 2029 NW 13th Street. Stuart Cullen of Brown & Cullen, Inc. (BCI), Art Stockwell and Andy Hogshead of Collier Companies were in attendance to present the project.

There were four (4) attendees, of which three (3) were neighbors and one was an interested citizen. Stuart Cullen presented the nature of the land use changes and rezoning and their relationship to other parcels in the areas. He identified that the longer term plan encompasses expansion of the Hidden lake Apartment complex by the addition of a new entrance on NW 13th Street. There was good discussion regarding bicycle and pedestrian corridors and the restricted 13th Street R/W for appropriate bicycle paths. There was also further discussion on the need for more apartments and the redevelopment of the NW 13th street corridor. In general, it appeared that the land use and rezoning change for the 13th Street parcel was appropriate and the mixed use zoning would be appropriate. There were mixed feelings and discussion regarding the land use and rezoning of the conservation zoned area. At the end of the meeting Stuart explained the schedule for the land use and zoning changes.

The meeting was adjourned at approximately 7:30 PM.

1.0 Statement of Proposed Change

This Small-Scale Comprehensive Plan Amendment (CPA) and Rezoning proposes a change of the future land use designation and zoning category for Parcel No. 09971-000-000. The 0.71-acre property is located in the 2000 block of Northwest 13th Street and includes a portion of the former Brasington Cadillac Oldsmobile (BCO) site that has been vacant for approximately four years. The existing Future Land Use is Commercial and the existing zoning designation is Automotive Oriented Business District (BA). The proposed Future Land Use is Mixed Use Low Intensity (MUL) (8-30 units per acre) and the proposed zoning is MU-1.

The area surrounding the site along NW 13th Street is characterized by a mix of uses including small offices, larger office complexes, restaurants, retail, and educational facilities associated with Gainesville High School. The majority of the NW 13th Street corridor beginning north of NW 39th Avenue to south of NW 8th Avenue has Mixed Use Low or Medium Future Land Use and zoning as shown in purple on Figure 1. There are several exceptions to this including the circled BCO property and Gainesville High School.

Table 1: Surrounding Property Designations and Use

Direction	Future Land Use	Zoning	Current Use
North	Mixed Use Low	MU-1	Commercial, Restaurants
South	Mixed Use Low	MU-1	Commercial, Offices
East	Mixed Use Low, Conservation, Single Family, Residential Medium	MU-1, CON, RMF-6, RSF-1	Vacant property, Hidden Lake Apartments and associated conservation area, single family homes
West	Mixed Use Medium, Education	MU-2, ED	Office building, Vacant restaurant, Gainesville High School

1.1 Existing Future Land Use and Zoning Designations

As shown on Figures 2 and 3, the BCO property has a Future Land Use of Commercial and a zoning designation of Automotive Oriented Business District (BA). The BA zoning district was established for “commercial uses involved in automotive sales, services and related activities as well as other large scale commercial uses with similar locational needs.” The NW 13th Street corridor is not characterized by commercial uses associated with automotive related activities and is not appropriate for such uses.

1.2 Proposed Future Land Use and Zoning Designations

The proposed Future Land Use and Zoning designations are Mixed Use Low Intensity and MU-1. The purpose of the mixed use zoning district is to “offer a mixture of residential, convenience-type retail, professional and consumer service uses primarily for residents of mixed-use and adjacent residential neighborhoods.” Additionally, it was “established to allow uses compatible with each other and with surrounding residential areas to be developed near each other.” The site is located proximate to existing mixed use areas, single family residential areas and multi-family units and is an ideal location for additional mixed use property.

1.3 Justification

Future Land Use Element Policy 4.1.3 in the City of Gainesville Comprehensive Plan states that the City reviews proposed amendments to the Future Land Use map by considering the following factors:

1. Overall compatibility of the proposal;
2. Surrounding land uses;
3. Environmental impacts and constraints;
4. Whether the change promotes urban infill; and
5. Whether the best interests, community values, or neighborhood support is achieved.

The proposed amendment complies with each of the factors. The proposed FLU is compatible with the vision for the mixed-use activity centers near major roadway nodes and the surrounding land uses as the entire NW 13th Street corridor is currently categorized as mixed use. The site does not have any environmental impacts or constraints as the site is currently vacant and has been developed for decades. The change promotes urban infill and redevelopment by allowing additional uses on the property that are not currently allowed in Automotive Oriented Business areas.

Additionally, the property is located adjacent to NW 13th Street in the City's Central Corridor District. The Central Corridors District was created to promote a “vibrant mix of commercial, office, retail and residential uses in close proximity” along major corridors in the city. Amending the FLUM and zoning map to mixed use low intensity will further the goals of the Central Corridor District.

2.0 Application Questions

2.1 Vacant Property Analysis

Are there other properties or vacant buildings within ½ mile of the site that have the proper land use and/or zoning for your intended use of this site?

There are properties or vacant buildings within ½ mile of the site that have the property land use and zoning, but these sites are not relevant to the proposed amendment as this amendment will bring the site into conformance with the existing mixed use corridor along NW 13th Street. The property will be an extension of the existing Hidden Lake apartment complex located to the east of the property and will provide an alternate vehicular, pedestrian and bicycle connection to the corridor.

2.2 Nonresidential Impacts

If the request involves non-residential development adjacent to existing or future residential, what are the impacts of the proposed use of the property on the following: Residential Streets and Noise and Lighting?

2.2.1 Impact on Residential Streets

The BCO property is currently accessed via NW 13th Street and any future development will utilize NW 13th Street for primary access points. This will be future access for Hidden Lake complex, which currently is accessed through NW 21st Avenue, a primarily residential street. Providing an additional connection for the Hidden Lake complex will reduce the traffic on the residential street. Future development plans will be reviewed by the Public Works Department to ensure all regulations are met or exceeded with regards to access.

2.2.2 Impact on Noise and Lighting

This request will not create an additional noise or lighting impact to adjacent development and when the site is developed in the future, it will be in conformance with lighting standards set forth by the City of Gainesville to ensure no impact to nearby residential properties.

2.3 Community Contributions

Explanation of how the proposed development will contribute to the community. What are the potential long-term economic benefits (wages, jobs & tax base)?

The amendment will allow the NW 13th Street Corridor to be developed as a mixed-use activity center by providing additional residential housing within the corridor and provide continuity of allowable uses and design parameters.

2.4 Level of Service Impacts

The BCO property is currently designated as Automotive Oriented Business District (BA), which does not have a maximum allowable intensity, floor area ratio, or lot coverage requirement but is subject to angle of light requirements for setbacks. This means that the potential for development, and therefore impact to adopted level of service standards, under the existing designation is greater than if the site were developed under the proposed MU-1 designation. Although very few properties within the City are developed at the maximum density or intensity, the calculations in Table 2 below have been completed on the maximum allowable.

Table 2: Maximum Density and Intensity - Existing and Proposed

Zoning Designation	Maximum Density/Intensity	Max Stories	Acres	Max Residential	Max Non-Residential
Existing - BA	N/A	5	0.71	--	154,638 sf
Proposed - MU-1	50%, 30 upa	5	0.71	21 units	77,319 sf

2.4.1 Roadways

The BCO property is located in Transportation Concurrency Exception Area (TCEA) Zone B and must meet the standards in Concurrency Management Element Policies 1.1.5 and 1.1.6 when development occurs. The site design has not been finalized and a formal traffic study will be completed at the time of development plan approval for any future development. The maximum non-residential development scenario for the existing allowable uses would create more average daily and peak trips than the proposed land use and zoning designations, which allow for less intensity and therefore less transportation impact to the roadways.

2.4.2 Recreation

According to the October 2010 City of Gainesville Evaluation and Appraisal Report, Recreation Level of Service was met or exceed on all applicable recreation elements including active recreation and passive recreation facilities. The addition of a potential 21 units will have a negligible effect on the Recreation Level of Service.

2.4.3 Water and Wastewater

The property is currently served both water and wastewater by Gainesville Regional Utilities. As no development plan has been created and the existing facilities are vacant and do not have a current impact on the water and wastewater system, the maximum generation rates are provided to demonstrate that the proposed use is a reduction of potential usage. Development of the site is not expected to adversely impact the level of service.

Table 3: Potable Water

Use	Size	Rate	Total
Existing Commercial	154,638 sf	0.15 gpd per sf	23,196 gpd
Residential	21 units*	200 gpd per capita	8,400 gpd
Commercial/Office	77,319 sf	0.15 gpd per sf	11,598 gpd
Reduction in potential usage			3,198 gpd

*Assumes 2 people per household.

Table 4: Wastewater Flow

Use	Size	Rate	Total
Existing Commercial	154,638 sf	0.15 gpd per sf	23,196 gpd
Residential	21 units*	113 gpd per capita	4,746 gpd
Commercial/Office	77,319 sf	0.15 gpd per sf	11,598 gpd
Reduction in potential usage			6,852 gpd

*Assumes 2 people per household.

2.4.4 Solid Waste

Solid waste generation will not exceed the City's established level of service of 0.655 tons of solid waste per capita per Objective 1.4 of the Solid Waste Element. The Alachua County Solid Waste Facility currently has capacity and is projected to have capacity for greater than 10 years.

2.4.5 Public Schools

The maximum residential potential of the site is 30 units per acre, which would yield 21 multi-family dwelling units. As illustrated in Tables 6 and 7, if the site were developed to the full potential, only two students would be generated by the project. The property lies in several Concurrency Service Areas (CSA) based on school grade. All CSA's available capacity for new students and this amendment will have a negligible effect.

Table 5: Public School Impact

Type of Unit	Units	Elementary (0.042/unit)	Middle (0.016/unit)	High (0.019/unit)	Total
Multi-family	21*	1	0.5	0.5	2

*Maximum units, no final development plans have been established.

Table 5: Public School Capacities

Concurrency Service Area	2012-2013 LOS Standard	2012-2013 Available Capacity
Northwest Gainesville CSA	86.5%	348
Westwood CSA	86.1%	168
Gainesville CSA	83.6%	359

2.5 Transit, Bikeways, Pedestrian Amenities

The site is located adjacent to NW 13th Street which is accessible by both transit and pedestrian facilities. Sidewalks are present on both the east and west side of NW 13th Street and connect the site to various commercial, educational and office facilities. Two transit routes directly serve the site including Routes 8 and 29 while three additional routes have stops within approximately ¼ mile including Routes 6, 10 and 15. Table 6 shows each route, headways and operation times and Figure 4 shows the route locations.
