

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Pegeen Hanrahan

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, internal auditors help their organizations meet their objectives by monitoring risks and ensuring controls in place are adequate to mitigate those risks; and

WHEREAS, internal auditors – along with the board, executive management, and the external auditors – are a corporate governance cornerstone and help their organizations comply with new legislation and regulations for enhanced corporate governance; and

WHEREAS, The Institute of Internal Auditors (IIA), an international professional organization with global headquarters in Altamonte Springs, Florida, has 160,000 members in internal auditing, governance, internal control, information technology, audit, education, and security. With representation from more than 165 countries, The Institute is the acknowledged leader in certification, education, research, and technological guidance for the profession worldwide; and

WHEREAS, the City of Gainesville has 54 Institute of Internal Auditors members in the North Central Florida Chapter; and many others affiliated with Internal Auditors and their livelihood; and

WHEREAS, The Institute is celebrating International Internal Audit Awareness Month in May 2009.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pegeen Hanrahan, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim May 24-30, 2009 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in recognizing professional internal auditors for their contribution.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 13th day of April, A.D., 2009.
