PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, the Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) Program and the HOME Investment Partnerships (HOME) Program provide local governments with resources to meet the needs of low- and moderate-income persons; and

WHEREAS, in this community and in communities throughout the nation, the CDBG and HOME Programs have developed a strong working network of relationships between local governments, residents of neighborhoods and the many community-based non-profit agencies that provide services and projects to improve those neighborhoods; and

WHEREAS, our community recognizes that the CDBG and HOME Programs are a partnership of Federal, state and local governments, business, non-profit and community efforts, and that the services and projects funded by the CDBG and HOME Programs, administered by the City of Gainesville and delivered by local government and non-profit organizations, rely heavily on the dedication and goodwill of our combined efforts; and

WHEREAS, the CDBG and HOME Programs have provided the City of Gainesville with important and flexible assistance to help meet the needs of our low- and moderate-income residents, thereby creating a better way of life for hundreds of people in our community.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Paula M. DeLaney, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim April 16-22, 2001.

NATIONAL COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT WEEK in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me and thank all those involved for fostering cooperative relationships between the public and private sectors to further the community development efforts of this city.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 30th day of March, A.D., 2001.
