CITIZENS' ADVISORY COMMITTEE FOR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT

Fifteen (15) members, three (3) year terms. Created by Resolution #R-74-144 (11/18/74), Reference Ordinance Numbers 1011, 1912, 2554. City Residency NOT Required. The Citizens' Advisory Committee for Community Development (CACCD) makes recommendations to the City Commission and City Manager relating to the Community Development Program and shall lend support to, and seek support from, desirable programs and projects.

The purpose of this Committee, officially created by resolution adopted November 18, 1974, and appointed by the City Commission of Gainesville, Florida, and designated as the Gainesville Citizens Advisory Committee for Community Development is to serve as the formal body through which active citizen participation is provided to aid and support the development and carrying out of the Community Development Program for the City of Gainesville, Florida.

The primary duties and responsibilities of the Committee are: (1) to learn about the nature and extent of the City's Community Development Program; (2) to make recommendations relating to the Community Development Program; (3) to help inform other citizens and groups as to the need for the Community Development Program, and thus develop united community understanding of this need.

Related to Board/Committee:

Being a long-time Gainesville resident, I have a strong interest in the historic districts and other historic resources of the city, and have also been a living history interpreter at Morningside Nature Center since 2005. As a graduate student, I have participated in two summer field schools in preservation through UF, one focusing on documentation of historic structures and cemeteries on Nantucket, and one focusing on documentation and hands-on restoration work at a Shaker site in New York. I have completed coursework involving the evaluation of the Fifth Avenue/Pleasant Street Neighborhood in Gainesville, as well as survey work in a historic district in New Orleans. At the university, I have also served one year as a student member on the Preservation of Historic Buildings and Sites Committee, and am currently the instructor for an introductory course on historic preservation for undergraduate students minoring in urban and regional planning. In the summer of 2008, I completed a three month internship in the World Heritage Center at ICOMOS International's headquarters in Paris.

Educational Background:

Present - graduate student, University of Florida - pursuing a PhD in historic preservation, an MSBC in building construction, and an MA in archaeology.

May 1998 - BA in Anthropology, University of Florida.

June 1993 - Eastside High School, Gainesville.

Professional Organizations:

US/ICOMOS - student member, January 2008 to present.

Phi Kappa Phi honor society - member, May 2007 to present.

Historic Gainesville Inc. - board member, August 2007 to present.

National Trust for Historic Preservation - student member, March 2006 to present.

Alpha Rho Chi architecture fraternity - member, May 1996 to present.

Pleasant Street/5th Avenue Historic Society - member, 2004-2005.
