

City of Gainesville, Florida

Office of Mayor Pegeen Hanrahan

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Susan Wright has served as President of the Sugarfoot Neighborhood Association and in other leadership roles for the past 15 years; and

WHEREAS, Susan has served as a tenacious neighborhood advocate to protect quality of life in the Sugarfoot area, specifically through her negotiations with nearby commercial development, creating John Mahon Park, and leading other ongoing improvement efforts; as well as working with codes enforcement for the benefit of all single-family neighborhoods in the entire city; and

WHEREAS, Susan has developed and manages a website dedicated to tracking all of the campaign donations and expenditures from every local office-seeker, for the public interest benefit of all of Gainesville's citizens; and

WHEREAS, Susan headed the effort to write a plan for Campaign Finance Reform which was approved through the state government, passed on the Alachua County ballot, and first used in the last election cycle; and

WHEREAS, Susan served on the steering committee for Legacy Lands, that successfully advocated for a county-wide vote to bond $29 million for the purchase of environmentally-sensitive lands through Alachua County Forever; and

WHEREAS, Susan's work for residents in the neighborhood, city, and county always reflects a sincere, informed, engaged, and detail-oriented intellect working for the common good.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Pegeen Hanrahan, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim March 21, 2006 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in recognizing the positive efforts Susan Wright has contributed to our community, state and society, (and to wish Susan a Happy Birthday)!

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 3rd day of March, A.D., 2006.
