

1 Physical Space as a Resource

2 Providing Programs & Services

3 Community Collaboration, Community Development & Creative Place-Making

SPARC352

SPARC352 is a place-based initiative grounded in the idea that arts are at the core of vibrant and healthy communities. In partnership with community members, SPARC352 aims to develop self-sustaining community centers for learning, wellness, workforce development, and historic and cultural preservation through creativity and collaboration - a Space for People, Arts, Research, and Creative Collaboration and Community (that is, SPARC352).

SPARC352

1

Community Collaboration, Community Development & Creative Place-Making

Structure and Support to Help Communities Realize their Visions for Change through the Arts

- ▶ Resources for program planning, development, and implementation
- ▶ One Nation, One Project

2

Providing Programs & Services

Current and Developing Programming

$750,000 grant from the Mellon Foundation for programming in Porters and Pleasant Street Communities

Arts in Medicine Programs

3

Physical Space as a Resource

Old Fire Station #1 (on Main Street)

Multi-disciplinary Arts collision space, creative studio space, flexible work areas, makerspaces