

ORDINANCE NO. 080611
0-08-79

An ordinance of the City of Gainesville, Florida, finding that property located at 708 Northeast Boulevard, Gainesville, Florida, as more specifically described in this Ordinance, qualifies for an ad valorem tax exemption for historic properties; granting an exemption from ad valorem tax for certain improvements beginning January 1, 2009, and continuing for 10 years under certain conditions; authorizing the Mayor and Clerk of the Commission to sign the Historic Preservation Property Tax Exemption Covenant between the property owners and the City; providing a severability clause; providing a repealing clause; and providing an immediate effective date.

WHEREAS, Section 25-61 of the City of Gainesville Code of Ordinances authorizes ad valorem tax exemptions for eligible improvements to eligible properties pursuant to Sections 196.1997 and 196.1998, Florida Statutes, and

WHEREAS, the owners of the property at 708 Northeast Boulevard, Gainesville, Florida, as more specifically described in this ordinance, have applied for an ad valorem tax exemption pursuant to Chapter 25, Article IV, Code of Ordinances, City of Gainesville; and

WHEREAS, on April 3, 2007, the Historic Preservation Board approved Part 1 (evaluation of property eligibility) and Part 2 (description of improvement) of the application for ad valorem tax exemption; and

WHEREAS, the property owners completed the improvements and on November 4, 2008, the Historic Preservation Board approved Part 3 (request for review of completed work) of the application for ad valorem tax exemption; and

WHEREAS, the Historic Preservation Board has recommended to the City Commission that the exemption be granted; and

1 WHEREAS, at least 10 days notice has been given once by publication in a newspaper
2 of general circulation notifying the public of this proposed ordinance and of a Public Hearing in
3 the City Commission Auditorium, City Hall, City of Gainesville;

4 WHEREAS, pursuant to City Code, notice has also been given by mail to the property
5 owners, at least 10 days prior to the date set for the public hearing on this ordinance; and

6 WHEREAS, a Public Hearing was held pursuant to the published notice described at 7 which hearing the parties in interest and all others had an opportunity to be and were, in fact,
8 heard;

9 NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COMMISSION OF THE 10 CITY OF GAINESVILLE, FLORIDA:

11 Section 1. The City Commission finds that the property owned by Matthew B. Hintze
12 and Larina K. Hintze, husband and wife, and located at 708 Northeast Boulevard, Gainesville,
13 Florida, as more particularly described in Exhibit "A" to the Historic Preservation Property Tax
14 Exemption Covenant, attached as "Exhibit 1" of this ordinance and made a part hereof as if set
15 forth in full (the "Property"), is a contributing property located in a local historic district
16 commonly known as the Northeast Historic District, meets the requirements of Sections
17 196.1997, F.S. and of Sections 25-61 thru 25-66, Code of Ordinances, City of Gainesville, and is 18 eligible to receive an ad valorem tax exemption.

19 Section 2. The City Commission hereby grants an ad valorem tax exemption for 100
20 percent of the assessed value of eligible improvements made to the Property, as described in the 21 Historic Preservation Property Tax Exemption application. This exemption applies only to those 22 ad valorem taxes levied on the real property by the City of Gainesville that are not levied for the 23 payment of bonds or authorized by a vote of the electors pursuant to section 9(b) or section 12,
24 Article VII of the Florida Constitution.

1 Section 3. This exemption shall take effect on January 1, 2009, remain in effect for 10
2 years and shall expire on December 31, 2018, as provided in the Historic Preservation Property
3 Tax Exemption Covenant, attached as Exhibit "1" to this ordinance and made a part hereof as if
4 set forth in full (the "Covenant").

5 Section 4. Upon signature by the property owners, the Mayor and Clerk of the 6 Commission are authorized to sign the Covenant. The property owners are responsible for 7 recording the fully executed Covenant in the official records of Alachua County and for
8 providing a certified copy of the recorded Covenant to the City Manager or designee.

9 Section 5. If any word, phrase, clause, paragraph, section or provision of this ordinance
10 or the application hereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid or unconstitutional, such 11 finding shall not affect the other provisions or applications of the ordinance which can be given 12 effect without the valid or unconstitutional provisions or application, and to this end the 13 provisions of this ordinance are declared severable.

14 Section 6. All ordinances, or parts of ordinances, in conflict herewith are to the extent of 15 such conflict hereby repealed.

16 Section 7. This ordinance shall become effective immediately upon final adoption.

17 PASSED AND ADOPTED this 18th day of December, 2008.

Exhibit "1"

HISTORIC PRESERVATION PROPERTY TAX EXEMPTION COVENANT

This covenant is made by Matthew B. Hintze and Larina K. Hintze, husband and wife, (hereinafter referred to as the Owners) and in favor of City of Gainesville (hereinafter referred to as the City) for the purpose of the restoration, renovation or rehabilitation, of a certain Property located at 708 Northeast Boulevard, which is owned in fee simple by the Owners and is listed in the National Register of Historic Places or locally designated under the terms of a local preservation ordinance or is a contributing Property to a national register listed district or a contributing Property to a historic district under the terms of a local preservation ordinance. The areas of significance of this Property, as identified in the National Register nomination or local designation report of the Property or the district in which it is located are xxx architecture, xxx history, archaeology.

The Property, a residential building, is comprised essentially of grounds, collateral, appurtenances, and improvements. The Property is more particularly described as follows: See Legal Description attached as Exhibit "A" and made a part hereof as if set forth in full. In consideration of the tax exemption granted by the City, the Owners hereby agree to the following for the period of the tax exemption, which is from January 1, 2009, to December 31, 2018. In order to retain the exemption, however, the historic character of the property, and improvements, which qualified the property for an exemption, must be maintained over the period for which the exemption is granted.

1. The Owners agree to assume the cost of the continued maintenance and repair of said Property so as to preserve the architectural, historical, or archaeological integrity of the same in order to protect and enhance those qualities that made the Property eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places or designation under the provisions of the local preservation ordinance.

2. The Owners agree that no visual or structural alteration will be made to the Property without prior written permission of the Local Historic Preservation Office.

The address of the certified Local Historic Preservation Office is:

Name of Office/Agency: Planning and Department Development Services of the City of Gainesville
Address: Box 490 Station 11
City: Gainesville Fl Zip 32602
Telephone: (352) 334-5022

3. The Owners agree to ensure the protection to the site against willful damage or vandalism. Nothing in this Covenant shall prohibit the Owners from developing the site in such a manner that will not threaten or damage the archaeological resource, provided that permission for alteration of the site is pursuant to 2, above.

4. The Owners agree that the Local Historic Preservation Office, and appropriate representatives of the City, their agents and designees shall have the right to inspect the Property at all reasonable times in order to ascertain whether or not the conditions of this Covenant are being observed. The City will inspect the property upon expiration of the exemption to ensure the terms of the Covenant have been upheld. In the event the original Owners (or any successive Owners) sell the Property prior to the expiration of the exemption, the Buyer must arrange for an inspection by the Local Historic Preservation Office prior to closing to ensure that he or she does not assume responsibility for the prior owner's violation of the Covenant. Failure of the Buyer to have the Property inspected prior to closing shall create a presumption that the Buyer is responsible for violations of this Covenant found at the next inspection. The current property owners are required to provide notice to Buyer and their heirs, successors or assigns of the existence of this covenant.

5. In the event of the non-performance or violation of the maintenance provision of the Covenant by the Owners or any successor-in-interest during the term of the Covenant, the Local Historic Preservation Office, will report such violation to the Property Appraiser and Tax Collector, who shall take action pursuant to s. 196.1997 (7), F.S. The Owners shall be required to pay the difference between the total amount of taxes which would have been due in March in each of the previous years in which the Covenant was in effect had the property not received the exemption and the total amount of taxes actually paid in those years, plus interest on the difference calculated as provided in s.212.12 (3), F.S.

6. If the Property is damaged by accidental or natural causes during the Covenant period, the Owners will inform the Local Historic Preservation Office, in writing, of the damage to the Property, including (1) an assessment of the nature and extent of the damage; and (2) an estimate of the cost of restoration or reconstruction work necessary to return the Property to the condition existing at the time of project completion. In order to maintain the tax exemption, the Owners shall complete the restoration or reconstruction work necessary to return the Property to the condition existing at the time of project completion on a time schedule agreed upon by the Owners and the Local Historic Preservation Office.

7. If the Property has been destroyed or severely damaged by accidental or natural causes during the Covenant period, that is, if the historical integrity of the features, materials, appearance, workmanship, and environment or the archaeological integrity which made the Property eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places or the designation under the terms of the local preservation ordinance have been lost or so damaged that the restoration is not feasible, the Owners will notify the Local Historic Preservation Office, in writing, of the loss. The Local Historic Preservation Office will evaluate the information provided and notify the Owners in writing of its determination regarding removal of the Property from eligibility for tax exemption. If the Local Historic Preservation Office determines that the Property should be removed from eligibility for tax exemption, it will notify the Alachua County Property Appraiser in writing so that the tax exemption can be canceled for the remainder of the Covenant period. In such cases, no penalty or interest shall be assessed against the Owners.

8. If it appears that the historical integrity of the features, materials, appearance, workmanship, and environment, or archaeological integrity which made the Property eligible for listing in the National Register of Historic Places or designation under the terms of the local preservation ordinance have been lost or damaged deliberately or through gross negligence of the Owners, the Local Historic Preservation Office shall notify the Owners in writing. For the purpose of this covenant, "gross negligence," means the omission of care, which even inattentive and thoughtless persons never fail to take of their own Property. The Owners shall have 30 days to respond, indicating any circumstances which show that the damage was not deliberate or due to gross negligence. If the Owners cannot show such circumstances, he shall develop a plan for restoration of the Property and a schedule for completion of the restoration. In order to maintain the tax exemption, the Owners shall complete the restoration work necessary to return the Property to the condition existing at the time of project completion on a time schedule agreed upon by the Owners and the Local Historic Preservation Office. If the Owners do not complete the restoration work on the agreed upon time schedule, the Local Historic Preservation Office will report such a violation to the Property Appraiser and Tax Collector who shall take action pursuant to s. 196.1997 (7), F.S. The Owners shall be required to pay the differences between the total amount of taxes which would have been due in March in each of the previous years in which the Covenant was in effect had the Property not received the exemption and the total amount of taxes actually paid in those years, plus interest on the difference calculated as provided in s. 212.12 (3), F.S.

9. The terms of this Covenant shall be binding on the current Property Owner, transferees, and their heirs, successors, or assigns.
