Commissioner Harvey Ward - Request to Convene a Citizen Police Review and Reform Recommendations Panel (B)

Motion: The Police Advisory Council be expanded with more citizens appointed by the City Commission and reflect racial, socio-economic and geographic diversity. A Subcommittee of the PAC be formed to work on the Proposed Police Review and will solicit input from the FOP.

The subcommittee will:

1) Pay particular attention to how existing operations and procedures affect communities and individuals of color, especially black residents, as well as other historically and currently marginalized communities and individuals.

2) Pay particular attention to programs that are working and having a positive impact as well as to allegations of improper behavior and offer specific solutions to address them in a new system.

3) Consider what, if any, current GPD functions and practices might best be delivered by a different existing or new city department.

4) Consider what, if any, current GPD functions and practices should be ended.

5) Consider what, if any, current GPD functions and practices should be better-supported.

6) Offer proposals for reform as clear, stand-alone modules that consider logistical and funding concerns, with special attention to how they affect communities and individuals of color, in particular black residents, as well as other historically and currently marginalized communities and individuals.

- The PAC develop a procedure for complainants to review their cases before the PAC.*
- The PAC add use of force reviews to list of PAC reviews.*
- The PAC provide a quarterly report to the City Commission on the activities of the PAC.*
- The PAC host Summits on Police Transformation.*
- The PAC study increasing Police Service Technicians and renaming the program "Community Service Technicians" to have more non-weaponized officers respond to calls.*
