

City of Gainesville, Florida
Office of Mayor Lauren Poe
PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, Amy Carpus began her tenure with the city in 1998 at Morningside Nature Center and moved to GRU in 2004 as a Conservation Analyst then a Residential Efficiently Program Coordinator III; and

WHEREAS, Amy is known for her vast knowledge on energy efficiency and conservation; and

WHEREAS, Amy was a champion of GRU and its conservation efforts and passionate about educating the public through community events; and

WHEREAS, Amy has served the citizens of Gainesville and her fellow co-workers faithfully for 22 years with the highest degree of professionalism and dedication; and

WHEREAS, Amy is the consummate Conservation Analyst; and

WHEREAS, Amy Carpus had an astonishing encyclopedic recall of obscure knowledge, an eccentric bohemian vibe and an aficionado of rock and roll music; and

WHEREAS, Amy was a dedicated member of the Society for Creative Anachronism.

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Lauren Poe, by the authority vested in me as Mayor of the City of Gainesville, do hereby proclaim February 16, 2021 as in the City of Gainesville and invite all our citizens to join me in recognizing Amy for hard work and dedication.

Conservationist Amy Carpus Day

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the official seal of the City of Gainesville, Florida, this 28th day of January, A.D., 2021.

Lauren Poe
Mayor
