The subject property is not the homestead of the Grantor nor is it contiguous thereto.

Amended and Restated Exhibit "B"

The disposition of this property was done through a competitive Request for Proposal (RFP) process in which the GRANTOR offered to incentivize potential buyers to acquire the property described in Exhibit "A" to this deed ("Property") and provide public benefit. The GRANTEE was the successful respondent to the RFP process and worked with the GRANTOR to negotiate a partially forgivable loan as a financial incentive to encourage the GRANTOR to provide public benefit by investing in this location, making property improvements, and creating jobs at higher than private sector wages and for certain qualified employees. In addition, having been specifically chosen through the RFP process, it is important to the GRANTOR that: 1) the Property be continuously occupied as a location of business operations for a period ending on September 8, 2026; and 2) GRANTEE not convey the Property to a third party within a period ending on September 8, 2036, without the GRANTOR having the opportunity to purchase the Property. Therefore, the parties negotiated, for good and valuable consideration, the below rights to be retained by the GRANTOR. Each party agrees that the below described rights are reasonable restraints on alienation.

RIGHT OF REVERTER: The provisions in this Right of Reverter will expire on September 8, 2026 ("Reverter Period"), and on such date the Property shall be automatically released of such Right of Reverter. GRANTEE, including any lessees that have leased the Property from GRANTEE, must occupy the Property for business operations throughout the Reverter Period. If, during the Reverter Period, GRANTEE or its lessees cease occupying the Property, GRANTEE shall notify the GRANTOR and GRANTOR has the right to exercise this Right of Reverter. For the purposes of this Right of Reverter, GRANTEE or its lessees shall be deemed to have ceased occupying the Property if GRANTOR, in its sole discretion, determines that reasonable evidence, including public records, utility records, property records, verified personal records, or other general research and documentation, demonstrate that the Property has not been used by GRANTEE or its lessees for business operations for at least two successive calendar months. The time period of any active and outstanding building permits that preclude occupation of the Property for business operations shall be deemed as occupying the Property and therefore shall not be used in any calculation to demonstrate that GRANTEE or its lessees have ceased to occupy the Property.

To exercise this Right of Reverter, GRANTOR shall notify GRANTEE within 60 calendar days of the date notice was received from GRANTEE or, if GRANTEE fails to provide notice, within 90 calendar days of the date GRANTOR has actual notice of GRANTEE or its lessees having ceased to occupy the Property for business operations. Upon which GRANTEE shall convey the Property, together with all improvements thereon, back to the GRANTOR and the GRANTOR will pay GRANTEE a sales price equal to the GRANTEE's actual cost of property repairs/improvements (but excluding improvements that are custom/specific to the GRANTEE's use of the property), but in no event shall the sales price exceed $500,000. The GRANTEE shall provide the GRANTOR with paid receipts for the repairs/improvements to document/verify the sales price.

At closing, any remaining principal balance on the promissory note executed by GRANTEE and payable to GRANTOR and recorded on September 8, 2016, (the "Note") shall be forgiven and a Satisfaction of Mortgage recorded.

In addition, at closing, any other outstanding mortgages or liens encumbering the Property shall be satisfied and a Satisfaction of Mortgage and/or Release of Lien recorded. If deficiencies exist (i.e., the GRANTEE's proceeds at closing are not enough to satisfy all outstanding mortgages and liens), the GRANTEE shall remain solely liable and such obligation shall in no way encumber the Property after closing.

RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL: The provisions in this Right of First Refusal will expire on September 8, 2036 ("Refusal Period"), and on such date the Property shall be automatically released of such Right of First Refusal. During the Refusal Period, if GRANTEE desires to accept a bona-fide arms-length offer to purchase the Property from a third-party, the GRANTEE shall first provide the GRANTOR with a copy of the written offer of purchase containing all operative terms and conditions of the purchase and closing (the "Written Offer.") The GRANTOR shall have 60 calendar days from the date GRANTOR received the Written Offer to notify GRANTEE of its intent to purchase the Property on the same terms and conditions as the Written Offer. In the event GRANTOR does not so notify GRANTEE, GRANTEE may close on the sale with the third party in accordance with the Written Offer. In the event the closing with the third party does not occur or the terms of Written Offer are modified prior to closing, this Right of First Refusal shall remain in full force and effect and GRANTEE may not sell to any third party without first offering the Property to the GRANTOR on the revised terms and conditions or upon receipt of subsequent Written Offers. In the event GRANTOR does not give notice to GRANTEE within the applicable period that it wishes to exercise its Right of First Refusal and the Property is sold on the terms set forth in the Written Offer, this Right of First Refusal and the Right of Reverter, as applicable if within the Reverter Period, shall be extinguished and the third party buyer shall take the Property free and clear of this Right of First Refusal and the Right of Reverter.

The parties agree that an offer relating to the sale of GRANTEE or an offer made to GRANTEE to merge into another entity shall not constitute a bona-fide arms-length offer to purchase the Property from a third-party and that such sale of GRANTEE or merger into another entity shall not constitute a purchase of the Property by a third party.

EXHIBIT "C"

RESTRICTIVE COVENANTS ON USE AND HEIGHT

The Grantor and Grantee agree that the following constitute reasonable restrictive covenants that are in the public interest. The Grantor and Grantee acknowledge that the Grantor is imposing these restrictive covenants in its proprietary capacity, as seller of the property. These restrictive covenants shall be enforceable, notwithstanding that the land use and zoning on the property may currently, or from time to time, allow all of the uses or heights that are prohibited herein. These restrictive covenants shall bind the Grantee and all successors in interest to the land and shall run with the land in perpetuity, unless sooner released by the Grantor as evidenced by recording of a written release document in the public records of Alachua County. The restrictive covenants shall be enforceable at law or in equity by the Grantor. The Grantor further reserves the right to enter the property at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, if necessary in order to monitor compliance with these restrictive covenants.

- No structure shall be erected on the property that exceeds 3 stories in height

In addition, the property shall not be used, in whole or in part, for any of the follow uses:

- Automotive service repair
- Gasoline service station
- Fuel Dealer
- Social Service or Rehabilitation Center: defined as establishments primarily engaged in the provision of residential and non-residential social and rehabilitative services. Included are establishments such as, alcoholism rehabilitation centers, drug rehabilitation centers, halfway group homes for persons requiring treatment, and rehabilitation agencies for delinquents and offenders, including parole and probation offices.
- Residence for the Destitute: defined as establishments primarily engaged in the provision of temporary residences for those persons lacking residences, possessions or resources. Services include overnight accommodations and furnishing of meals to residents only. Revenue is derived only from charitable sources.
- Community Residential Homes of 14 or More Residents: defined as a dwelling unit licensed to serve clients of the state department of health and rehabilitative services, which provides a living environment for residents who operate as the functional equivalent of a family, including such supervision and care by supportive staff as may be necessary to meet the physical, emotional and social needs of the residents. Community residential homes are further defined by Chapter 419, Florida Statutes, and regulated by the state department of health and rehabilitative services.

- Hotel or Motel
- Dormitory, Rooming House or Boarding House: defined as a dwelling used, or intended to be used, for the furnishing of sleeping accommodations for pay to transient or permanent guests.
- Communications Tower: defined as a guyed or self-supporting tower, constructed as a free standing structure or in association with a building, other permanent structure or equipment, containing one or more antennas intended for transmitting and/or receiving television, AM/FM radio, digital, microwave, cellular, telephone, or similar forms of electronic communication.
