Affordable Housing Issues (B)

The Community Development Committee heard extensive staff methodology presentations at the August 20th meeting and had asked that additionally staff bring back rental information on these four agenda affordable housing items. Planning and Development Services Director Steve Dush gave an overview and led the discussion by pointing out that one of the elements the Committee wanted further information as related to affordable housing, was statistics of the area's rental status. Planning and Development Services Director Steve Dush provided also an additional informational spreadsheet that identified, as a benchmark, showing the 30% Area Median Income (AMI) based on our area all the way up to 120 and the number of homes on the market located within these price points as well as also in the backup is information that basically identifies the costs of what that mortgage would be.

The Community Development Committee discussed the questions addressing affordable housing in the City by focusing on:

- 1. Is affordable housing dispersed throughout the City?*
- 2. Would inclusionary zoning be an effective tool to be used in Gainesville relative* to dispersed affordable housing?

3. What are the impediments to affordable housing?

4. What are the best tools to address the impediments to affordable housing?

After staff presentations and discussion of question 1, Is affordable housing dispersed throughout the City and discussion of question 2, Would inclusionary zoning be an effective tool to be used in Gainesville relative to dispersed affordable housing, the following motion was made by Commissioner Wells, approved unanimously.

MOTION: The Community Development Committee directed : 1) that there is no determination from this Committee on adequacy of the dispersion of affordable housing throughout the City at this time, that we recommend a concise report to the City Commission as whole of the data collected by staff and Alachua County working together, and that we hear an on going update upon the completion of the Assessment of Fair Housing analysis RFP which is pending at this time, and 2) that inclusionary zoning is not a viable tool to be used in Gainesville relative to dispersed affordable housing.

The Community Development Committee determined that questions 3 and 4 go together and needs further informational data from staff and to include tools of rental credit history and lease to own to be heard at the next meeting.

RECOMMENDATION

The Community Development Committee discuss Affordable Housing issues.
