PLANNING AND DEVELOPMENT SERVICES DEPARTMENT STAFF REPORT

Chapter 25, Article IV, of the Code of Ordinances authorizes the City Commission to grant ad valorem tax exemptions for historic properties pursuant to Florida law. As part of its review, the Historic Preservation Board (HPB) and the City Commission must determine whether “the proposed improvement is consistent with the Secretary of Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation and Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings and is therefore an eligible improvement.”

The process entails two steps: First, the Petitioner files Parts 1 (Preconstruction Application) and 2 (Final Application for Review of Completed Work) of the Historic Preservation Property Tax Exemption Application for the restoration/rehabilitation of a contributing residential building in the Northeast Residential Historic District. Part 1 was approved by the HPB on July 1, 2008, and Part 2 was approved by the HPB on April 6, 2010.

The applicant completed the restoration/rehabilitation work and staff inspected the completed work and found the work meets the Secretary of Interior's Standards for Rehabilitation and Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings and the City's Guidelines for Rehabilitating Historic Buildings. The renovations eligible for the tax exemption total $517,974.43.

On July 1, 2008, the HPB found the property eligible for the tax exemption and recommended the City Commission grant same, with certain conditions.
