

Legislation Text

File #: 140384., Version: 11

Transition from RUC to Utility Advisory Board (B)

After reviewing and discussing the citizen applications received for the newly-created Utility Advisory Board, the City Commission has chosen seven members and decided on the length of their term. As the RUC will be sunset, a plan must be developed to assist the new board in getting started. A checklist of some items to consider is attached.

Create a draft transition plan for the new Utility Advisory Board.