Special Recognition for the Gainesville Police Department Explorer Advisor of the Year (NB)

Officer Dontonya Smith of the Gainesville Police Department has been selected as the Florida Association of Police Explorers "Advisor of the Year" for her untiring efforts to make the Explorer's program successful for all youth within the County. This award is very special as it is usually given to agency advisor's of larger agencies. Officer Dontonya Smith was recognized for this award at the Explorer's State Competition in West Palm Beach on June 24, 2018

None

The City Commission recognize Officer Dontonya Smith for the tireless work, that often goes unnoticed, and the commitment to our city's youth via the Explorers program.
