Appointments to Pleasant Street/Fifth Avenue Task Force (B)

Three members of the Pleasant Street/Fifth Avenue Task Force have resigned due to conflicts. One is Rosa Williams, who represented the Pleasant Street neighborhood as a resident. Another is Winston Bradley, who represented the Santa Fe Community College Endowment Corporation. A third is Roberta Parks. Staff requests that the City Commission appoint Dorothy Butler as the new Pleasant Street neighborhood representative to replace Rosa Williams, Mike Curry as the new Santa Fe Community College Endowment Corporation representative, Mamie Parks to replace Roberta Parks as a 5th Avenue representative, and Susie Mae White at the request of Task Force Chair Ruth Brown.

None

The City Commission accept the three resignations and appoint four new representatives to the Pleasant Street/Fifth Avenue Task Force: Dorothy Butler, Mike Curry, Mamie Parks and Susie Mae White.
