Most Connected City in America Resolution (B)

Resolution No. 170957

A Resolution of the City Commission of the City of Gainesville, Florida, making the City of Gainesville the most connected city in America; and providing an effective date.

On April 9, 2018, the Broadband Subcommittee began a discussion about drafting a resolution expressing the goal of making the City of Gainesville the most connected city in America. On June 25, 2018, the City Attorney's Office presented a draft resolution to the Broadband Subcommittee, which was subsequently approved with modifications from Commissioners Hayes-Santos and Ward. This Resolution expresses the City of Gainesville Commission goal to make the City of Gainesville the most connected city in America.

The City Commission adopt the proposed Resolution.
